HANFORD HAS RESIGNED

HEALTH AS REASON

MAY LOCATE IN IDAHO CAPITAL

ALASKAS ATTACK A TRAIN

TEN MILE HIKE TOO MUCH

ARRESTS MADE IN MURDER CASE

A DYED BEARD.

FISH FEATHERS.

BAD FOR THE STOMACH.

HUNTING THE BATTLE.

A Cheap Lot.

Sunday Sermons.

Mistakes and Gallbladdes.

Sam Remedies.

Sudden Mourner Resigns.

Cause For Gratitude.

Willie Green—You ain't gotter.

Waiting it Slim.

A Fatal Program.

A Changed Man.

Every Character is the joint product of saints and sinners.

THE DAILY SIGNAL

Published Every Day Except Sunday by the SIGNAL PUBLISHING COMPANY 143 Main St. Bell Phone 14.

C. E. MINCKLEY, Editor.

Member Western Press Association. Member Idaho Press Association. P. O. Copyright Outlook, Sec.-Treas.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

1 week	$ .10
3 months (by carrier)	1.00
6 months (by carrier)	1.50
1 year (by carrier)	2.50
1 year (by mail)	2.00

Entered at the postoffice at Weiser, Idaho, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THE REPUBLICAN SUPREME COURT NOMINEE.

The Signal has published from expressions of the Republican press, individual preference in this county for the sufficient reason that the candidates seeking the Republican nomination are all good men, clean men, men of high character, men who deserve the support of the Republicans at the primaries and who, if nominated and elected, would be a credit to the state and to the Republican party.

There is no question, that the men and whatever may be the choice Signal has expressed to discuss one of the Republican candidates for supreme court justice, indeed that so many prominent men should be contesting for the nomination for supreme court justice, indeed that so many Democrats should be mentioned for the place, is a tribute to the ability, the character, the fitness of Judge Stewart, who for ten years was judge of the district court of this district, no question has so well been a strong and before and since his elevation linked to the field after the months to the bench has had a host of warm friends, friends and admirers in Washington and the district will do its part toward county. He is one of God's noble helpers when they think fail men and if he was in good health it would be presumptuous on his part of any man to aspire to the position. The Statesman has broken out his election, but he is not and has been, sided and shielded by former not born in good health. Like many Governor Gooding, in an attack on affected people he prefers to believe John T. Morrison over the Stevens his condition impairs his fitness for long service. The people have not the position, he thinks notwithstand- reasons that they had in per year the congressman of Idaho, is also $10,000 per annum on account of the he is physically unable to stand the tremendous mental management which is inseparable from the proscription which accrues to with the growth of the state, and consequently, not every man who feels that his life will be shortened by the tendency effect in some way shortening or sapping the vitality of the national.

Against him in the race is Judge Stewart, from the western counties, Alfred Budge, a younger man, is that a person who had evidently the prime of life and the ability of manhood to attack of the temporary physical condition, he is able to do our money, enough to economy there, the work and his ability is qualified, up to schools. They need not ap- to be the best legal talent of the temptation to depart from in an effort to state. He is a personal friend of obscure the facts. The people's money Judge Stewart and only entered the was some thing wanted. The public race when he thought the judge had been job and at first also over- decided not to run and when it be- looking attempt of the Statesman to come known that another would also make political capital out of it, it- nounce if he did not. He has been a degree of honest zeal had been on the hunt of a fit probe, that he became so popular in his district that strong at Los Angeles the result of the Democrats have ceased to again the trial might have been different, raise a candidate against him. From The desire to play politics was more a personal standpoint the Signal means simple proof of which had could not make a choice; from a since long made evident, standpoint of legal ability they are Governor Gooding gave the state equally matched; from the standpoint of executive administration, it is a point of judicial temper there is no were had. There was not a breath of difference, but from the standpoint needed in it. It was to bother of physical and mental fitness the back to an unknown fate, Signal feels justified in asking the people and another such ad- ning, who is not required in health, administration and they have of late We have the highest bench in Judge one way to secure it. That is to Stewart, but we need no absent-no- nominate and elect Mr. Morrison. to evil some position where the work in this office is once honored. We is and so active and not already believe the people of Idaho, will end longer with his information to hold the aforementioned by the cheap, un- a qualified which continue to disfigure the Statesman with sedited and digested endorsement.

EVERYBODY IS FOR FRENCH.

The Signal has not formed its choice and the temporary, of Judge necessary to publish lengthy sum- think that is sufficient. Nomina- for of Burton L. French's fitness for seat.

Not Enough Says Gov. Marshall

He Urges Taking Boys Off the Streets and Away From Temptation.

By THOMAS R. MARSHALL, Governor of Indiana.

THERE IS a proper one, in the place for the boy. There he can obtain social and moral education, exercise blood and develop force. It rarely happens that a boy is a bone delinquency goes to stay. It is perhaps necessary, however, that I should define a home. The proper home is essential surroundings, if clearly course but little. If it be a place where the father returns to eat and drink and sleep and permit it to be a home. The difference what other advantages it may possess, if the mother is too busy to get rid of the dollar and respect the virtues of motherhood and deep, yet be some of necessity and works every opportunity to drift her children out to the Sunday school or the day school or the entertainers and is more interested in the big champion who wants her alone the evenings than in the little one who calls for mother, then the house she takes is a house.

It may be hazards in its character, noisy from week to week, carnal in its quality and poorly furnished, but if it is a place where one goes and the mother knows the greatest happiness on earth is to be where her children have opportunity enough to drain up in the home of our most lowly folks it may be the most homelike. If it be a place where an earthly home goes home every evening and pure sweetness every day, then that humble place is an ideal home.

Parents In Bondage.

Unfortunately for the good of the republic these homes are not numerically increased in the land. The outside, lured of competition, Competition is the city, the vast growth of manufacturing industries, the high cost of living and the cost of high living are drawing the fathers and mothers of the land in bondage.

Deprived of time and opportunity to be with their children they seek pleasure them grow wild. Under such circumstances the boys turn to the streets and alleys and unimproved commons of our great cities.

Theoretically speaking, the family and the home have a right to their own boys; theoretically speaking, the family and the home are responsible for the nurture and training of these boys, and, theoretically speaking, it is today's business whether they turn out well or ill, but under such conditions force our theories down.

Another unfortunate condition at our present day civilization, federal income tax, the inheritance tax, the corporation and the ever widening chasm between the industrially rich and the industrially poor, is the social life in some of our cities, which has no connect any with truth that we claim for our churches, the cults of Christian society and that the home, which must repeal in their under standing, the educational advantages of their social circumstances, must open a place for the boys of today in Christian society.

The boy of today is as primitive as Cain and Abel. He is born sin burdened, but innocent, the is a child born. He is the most sacred of all the things. Nothing is sacred to him. He is born without the pale of the law, and he has not heard of the gospel. He comes into the world with a prejudice against all authority. He is a stranger to all the institutions that our race has built up. He is a barbarian, and he does not appreciate great gains accruing to him from the sacrifices of his ancestors.

Now, the state is forced into deal with the boy. The juvenile court, the probation officers, the truancy officers, the parole officers, the state reformatory and schools for incorrigible boys are all the result, beyond doubt, of the failure of the home, of the church and of the school to do their duty. Very probably we have on our statute books, at the present time, no one institution or agency so well adapted to deal with the boy as the home.

Now, the state is forced into dealing with the boy. The juvenile court, the probation officers, the truancy officers, the parole officers, the state reformatory and schools for incorrigible boys are all the result, beyond doubt, of the failure of the home, of the church and of the school to do their duty. Very probably we have on our statute books, at the present time, no one institution or agency so well adapted to deal with the boy as the home.

The Highest Type of Citizenship.

The highest type of citizenship flows in life, from the work and leaves its impress upon this day and generation because it has been excellent to a degree. Some of large all men realize that there must be obedience to law. Young boys are public enemies who only begin to come into public notice when they have grown up and have made a record. Our institutions are based on the idea that there must be obedience to law, and there must be a willingness on the part of the people to accordingly obey the laws, human and divine.

The boys' club movement does not want to abolish the home, its purposes are entirely except with the highest degree of honor, to aid the home in its work, to supplement the home, to strengthen the home, to make the home centrum and fortitude. Boys are to experience the things which they are fitted to do in life; to bring their hardiness and to be true to society under such conditions that they will be entirely grounded of any adverse opinion, to endeavor to convert their minds from their free and simple impress upon the home and the church the inestimable necessity of a return to free principles.

Boy of Today Is Primitive.

As a starting point for the social philosophy of those proposed club activities, can form their choice to want the boy and the boy's condition in the great country of civilization.

The boy of today is as primitive as Cain and Abel. He is born sin burdened, but innocent, the is a child born. He is the most sacred of all the things. Nothing is sacred to him. He is born without the pale of the law, and he has not heard of the gospel. He comes into the world with a prejudice against all authority. He is a stranger to all the institutions that our race has built up. He is a barbarian, and he does not appreciate great gains accruing to him from the sacrifices of his ancestors.

Now, the state is forced into deal with the boy. The juvenile court, the probation officers, the truancy officers, the parole officers, the state reformatory and schools for incorrigible boys are all the result, beyond doubt, of the failure of the home, of the church and of the school to do their duty. Very probably we have on our statute books, at the present time, no one institution or agency so well adapted to deal with the boy as the home.

The Highest Type of Citizenship.

The highest type of citizenship flows in life, from the work and leaves its impress upon this day and generation because it has been excellent to a degree. Some of large all men realize that there must be obedience to law. Young boys are public enemies who only begin to come into public notice when they have grown up and have made a record. Our institutions are based on the idea that there must be obedience to law, and there must be a willingness on the part of the people to accordingly obey the laws, human and divine.

The boys' club movement does not want to abolish the home, its purposes are entirely except with the highest degree of honor, to aid the home in its work, to supplement the home, to strengthen the home, to make the home centrum and fortitude. Boys are to experience the things which they are fitted to do in life; to bring their hardiness and to be true to society under such conditions that they will be entirely grounded of any adverse opinion, to endeavor to convert their minds from their free and simple impress upon the home and the church the inestimable necessity of a return to free principles.

Boy of Today Is Primitive.

As a starting point for the social philosophy of those proposed club activities, can form their choice to want the boy and the boy's condition in the great country of civilization.

The boy of today is as primitive as Cain and Abel. He is born sin burdened, but innocent, the is a child born. He is the most sacred of all the things. Nothing is sacred to him. He is born without the pale of the law, and he has not heard of the gospel. He comes into the world with a prejudice against all authority. He is a stranger to all the institutions that our race has built up. He is a barbarian, and he does not appreciate great gains accruing to him from the sacrifices of his ancestors.

Now, the state is forced into deal with the boy. The juvenile court, the probation officers, the truancy officers, the parole officers, the state reformatory and schools for incorrigible boys are all the result, beyond doubt, of the failure of the home, of the church and of the school to do their duty. Very probably we have on our statute books, at the present time, no one institution or agency so well adapted to deal with the boy as the home.

The Highest Type of Citizenship.

The highest type of citizenship flows in life, from the work and leaves its impress upon this day and generation because it has been excellent to a degree. Some of large all men realize that there must be obedience to law. Young boys are public enemies who only begin to come into public notice when they have grown up and have made a record. Our institutions are based on the idea that there must be obedience to law, and there must be a willingness on the part of the people to accordingly obey the laws, human and divine.

The boys' club movement does not want to abolish the home, its purposes are entirely except with the highest degree of honor, to aid the home in its work, to supplement the home, to strengthen the home, to make the home centrum and fortitude. Boys are to experience the things which they are fitted to do in life; to bring their hardiness and to be true to society under such conditions that they will be entirely grounded of any adverse opinion, to endeavor to convert their minds from their free and simple impress upon the home and the church the inestimable necessity of a return to free principles.

Real Homes, Marshall

Commends Boys' Club Movement as Tending to Good Citizenship.

An Open Letter to the Public

THE buying public has a distinct interest whether or not a merchant advertises. It is to your interest, Mrs. Consumer, whether or not your merchant tells you by advertisement of his wares for—it is an economic truth that only the merchant who advertises can afford to make price concessions that are really competitive, to do business on the smallest per sale profit.

The merchant who does not advertise is necessarily content with small sales, therefore must make a large per-sale profit.

Again—the very fact that your merchant advertises is a guarantee that his goods are moving every day, therefore you are assured of good goods and fresh goods. No merchant can afford to advertise for your inspection, stale or shoddy goods. Your pocketbook, your satisfaction, your every interest demands that your merchant be a good advertiser.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For County Assessor.

Editor Signal: Please announce through the columns of your paper that I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for county assessor, subject to the will of the voters at the primaries to be held 24th July.

JOHN M. NORRIS.

I hereby announce my candidacy for nomination on the Republican ticket for the office of prosecuting attorney of Washington county, subject to the will of the voters at the primary election to be held July 24th.

J. L. HORADIS.

For Sheriff.

To the voters of Washington county, Idaho:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of sheriff, subject to the will of the Republican voters at the coming primary election, and if nominated and elected, will conscientiously administer the duties of said office to the best of my ability.

WILLIAM D. WALKER.

Dated July 1, 1912.

Editor Signal: Please announce that I am a candidate for sheriff of Washington county, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the primary.

J. E. TUTNEY.

For Change Assessor.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of county assessor, subject to the will of the Republican voters at the primaries to be held July 24th.

JOHN J. McCREA.

I hereby announce myself a candidate on the Republican ticket for the office of county assessor, subject to the will of the people at the primary election to be held July 24, 1912. If nominated and elected I will give every taxpayer "The Square Deal." Dated July 17, 1912.

D. N. WEBBER.

THE SANITARY

PURE MILK AND CREAM

Telephone 24 Weiser

WHITTIER TOO SHORT

YOUR APPETITE WANTS

JIM LE

Sale of T

Clothing Items

IT IS WORTH WHILE HUNTING our representation because it gives you simply more of the greatest clothing offerings for men that has ever been made in this section. We have on file a stock of reasonable clothing, with fifty styles to select from. Our fabrics are finest, we offer the most particular dresser could desire, while the styling and fit are certain to please the fastidious. We have a wide range of fabrics, patterns and the prices are indeed low; 19.85 for any suit in the lot.

Hub Clothing Co.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Ed. Ellis and children left for a visit at Portland.

Mrs. Ed. Ellis and children left for a visit at Portland.

Mrs. Ed. Ellis and children left for a visit at Portland.