Several parties have returned from the mountains and others are leaving.
The republican territorial convention meets at Halley on Wednesday, the 30th instant.

The Water river at this place is almost dry. Not even the oldest settlers ever seen the water in the river at so low a stage.

James H. Hawley was nominated by acclamation as democratic candidate for delegate to congress by the territorial convention at Boise city, Wednesday last.

While Mr. Shearer is out rustating in the mountains the absence of his family on Sunday services at the church will be the result of a very serious, with fairly good attendance.

Nothing is more withering to the average Weiser lady than to be complimented by a stranger. She has done her whitest and prettiest dress and started out to make afternoon calls.

Mr. Smith, who has been held in jail without bail at Halley, for the killing of his husband, has been admitted to bail of $5000. We do not think she should have ever been released in jail at all.

James H. Chase, brother of our territorial delegate, Mr. Chase, arrived here Sunday last from Baker city, where he had been to examine some mines. Mr. Chase left Monday for his home in Missouri. He is a lawyer by profession, and will probably come west to locate after the presidential election.

Mr. Hannan came down from Salmon, Idaho, on his way to attend the territorial democratic convention, but owing to the east-bound train being three hours late Wednesday, he was not in Halley this place. Mr. Hannan is very prosperous in the upper country and the people generally happy.

Gov. T. A. Clark and party were in Halley on Tuesday last. They were met by the territorial delegation at the time the same amount of territory (two two counties) has more than 2000 voters. Halley counted that territory had more than 350 voters, and she will poll more than 2000. She is a very important territory, and she will poll more than 2000 voters.

Ray Hasbrouck, having received the appointment as a cadet to the United States Naval Academy, left Monday last for Washington. He will be accompanied to Annapolis by Delegate Dubois. No better selection for the cadetship could have been made. It is a very high honor, and Ray's many friends here and at Boise city wish him the highest possible success.

Mr. Hannan has decided to close all his business at this place, and is now selling off his goods at cost. He will not make any more business at this place, and he is now selling off his goods at cost.
