J. C. CAMPBELL, Clerk.

The notice of the Citizens ticket at Boise is in Mr. Turner's daughter, and his daughter's husband, reported in last week's LEADER.

Fred Tossetti was thrown last Saturday while riding his horse, from the points in Upper Weiser. They were very large, and were considered worth selling for $100.00.

Sheriff A. Dollar was assisting Jim Hooker this season in gathering up his cattle on the range. He reports a very successful season.

J. F. Gowan, J. H. Hardy, the Hollowell, S. Allen, G. B. Dickerson, Wm. Day, all of Oxford, were here Monday for the purpose of paying their last tribute of respect to W. B. Gowan deceased.

The editor of the Idaho Statesman has our thanks for a copy of the Constitution of the proposed state of Idaho. It is a neat pamphlet of 46 pages, and should by rights be every citizen's property. It is for sale by County Superintendent Bidwell has issued a call for the meeting of the county institute, which will be held the 13th school district, commencing on the 3rd and closing on the 7th of October, one year, as shown by the report of the county treasurer of the different districts.

A number are now in operation in the county, and the prospects are that many more will be put in operation before the close of the season.

Mr. Baker informs us that he has taken from 4 to 5 tons per day from his mine on Mann creek, and that the ore is improving with depth. The ledge is now about 4 feet wide. The ore is mostly free milling, but there is a large body of concentrating ore in the ledge.

Mary Farmer, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Farmer, died Monday last, aged one year, six months and eight days. The funeral took place Tuesday and was largely attended. The sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing bereaved family. Rev. T. L. Wells conducted the services at the grave.

The residence of Mr. Thos. Cahill, on 1st street, was totally destroyed by fire Monday morning last. The fire originated from a defective flue, and was discovered by Mrs. Cahill, who was alone in the house at the time. She gave the alarm and assistance was rendered by the neighbors, but the building was entirely consumed before the fire could be extinguished. The loss is estimated at $1,000, with no insurance. Mr. Cahill will rebuild at once.

F. W. Strobel died at his residence at the Weiser Ferry, on the Oregon side of Snake river, on Saturday evening, the 24th instant, after a long and painful illness. His disease was typhoid pneumonia, but the immediate cause of his death was congestion of the brain. The deceased, who was born in Baden, Germany, on October 30th, 1825. He was a good mechanic, a hard worker and a model husband and father, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him, having fine traits of character, qualities which endeared him to those with whom he was associated. He was buried in the Weiser cemetery Monday last by the Odd Fellows, of which Order he was an honored member. The funeral was largely attended by a large concourse of friends and neighbors of the deceased.
