THE WEISER SIGNAL.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1895.

The year of 1894 is the most disastrous year of corruption, and wide conflagration will be handed down to all long before the twentieth century.

Not since the days of the Roman Empire has the accumulation of wealth reached such proportions as it has in the United States during the past year. Not since the days of the Roman Empire has the power of wealth been so manifest in the control of the affairs of the government. We have received a copy of the Lake Tribune almanac for 1895, and find it a valuable book of statistics and matters of general interest. All of its data will be found correct when it is referred to.

Only a few days remain in which to subscribe for the Weekly Oregonian at the reduced rate of $1.50 per year. After January 1st the price will be $2.00. Send in your money at once if you want the Oregonian at the reduced rate.

The Lewiston Teller has changed hands and will be conducted hereafter by Mr. Tillinghast, who has been connected with the paper for some time. We are pleased to note that the Teller will continue to be published in the interests of the democratic party.

The Boise Statesman has changed hands, Mr. Pinney having sold his interest to Mr. Hasbrouck, who will hereafter be the sole proprietor of the paper. The Statesman is a good paper and we hope the change will be for the better.
