

Published by the Weiser Signal Co. Weiser, Idaho. Telephone 1234. Second-class postage paid at Weiser, Idaho, under special rate of Post Office No. 1234. Postmaster: This publication is published weekly.

NEWS OF THE WEEK
The following news items were received from various sources during the past week:

RAILROAD COLLISION
A collision between two passenger trains occurred near Weiser, Idaho, on Monday morning. The accident resulted in several injuries and the destruction of property.

LOCAL AFFAIRS
The local school board has decided to increase the school term by one month. This decision was met with some opposition from the parents.

COMMUNITY MEETING
A community meeting was held last evening at the town hall. The meeting was well attended and discussed various local issues.

MARKET REPORT
The market for various commodities is reported to be stable. Prices for wheat and other grains are holding steady.

PERSONAL
A young man from Weiser has been awarded a scholarship to attend college. This is a great achievement for him and his family.

CITY FIELD CORRAL
The city field corral is now open for business. It provides a convenient place for the storage and sale of livestock.

MATTERS Afoot
Several matters are currently afoot in the town. These include the construction of a new building and the improvement of the streets.

The Bank of Weiser
The Bank of Weiser is pleased to announce that it has received a license to operate in the town. This will provide the community with a local banking institution.

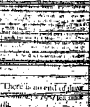

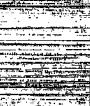

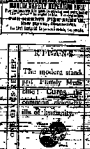

FENCING
A fencing contractor has been hired to fence the town square. This project is expected to be completed within a few weeks.

O.R. & N.
The O.R. & N. company has announced that it will be expanding its operations in the region. This is good news for the local economy.

O.R. & N.
The O.R. & N. company has also announced that it will be investing in new equipment. This will help to improve the efficiency of its operations.

O.R. & N.
The O.R. & N. company has also announced that it will be hiring new employees. This is a sign of growth and expansion.

O.R. & N.
The O.R. & N. company has also announced that it will be providing new services to its customers. This will help to meet the needs of the community.

SQUIRRELS DESTROYED
A large number of squirrels were destroyed in the town square. This was done to prevent damage to property and crops.

