TRAGEDY
Died by Drowning

W. E. GARDNER
A young man, W. E. Gardner, of this city, died by drowning in the river near the bridge at Weiser, Iowa, on Wednesday, June 13, 1901.

W. E. Gardner was a young man of about 25 years of age, and was well known in this city. He was a native of Iowa, and had been residing in Weiser for some time.

It is reported that Gardner was out fishing in the river on Wednesday afternoon, and that he was seen to fall into the water. He was not seen again until he was found floating in the river some distance from the bridge.

His body was recovered by a party of fishermen, and was taken to the city. It was found to be without any marks, and it is believed that he died of a sudden attack of heart disease.

The funeral will be held on Friday, June 15, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gardner, of this city. The burial will be in the cemetery at Weiser.

It is a sad loss to the community, and the death of this young man is a tragedy. It is hoped that his death will serve as a warning to all who are fond of fishing in the river.
