WEISER, WASHINGTON COUNTY, IDAHO, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1914.

HENRY HEITFELD SPEAKS TO WEISER AUDIENCE

Great House Jammed to Overflowing in Near-Sight

Best Words From Idaho's Religious Clergy

"TELL THEM I SAY THEY LIE"

These are the words being bandied from the stump by U. S. Senator Heyburn.

With such profound arguments are the political affairs of the Mormon church paralyzing the efforts of honest people to separate church and state in Idaho political affairs. With each dignified language does the Speaker man, elevated to the senate by Mormon influence, meet his political opponents on the stump.

MRS. WHITE'S SOJOURN AMONG MORMONS IN UTAH

They Showed the School House Where She Taught; Decried Her Proposed to Sign a Certain Petition.

Henry Heitfeld, pastor of the Methodist church here, spoke to a large audience at the Weiser high school last evening. Heitfeld's address was "The Church and the State." Heitfeld's address was "The Church and the State." Heitfeld's address was "The Church and the State."

WHEN DID BORAH CHANGE HIS MIND?

There is no Mormon issue," says W. E. Borah.

When did he change his mind? BORAH THOUGHT THERE WAS A MORMON ISSUE LAST JUNE AND WENT TO CHICAGO TO SUGGEST TO HAVE A PLANK INSERTED IN THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM ON THAT SUBJECT.
