

WEISER SEMI-WEEKLY SIGNAL

SEVENTH YEAR. WEMBR, WASHINGTON COUNTY, IDAHO, THURSDAY, NOV. 14, 1912. NO. 24

ACCEPTS PREMIERSHIP

The Board of Health of the city of Wemmer, Idaho, has accepted the offer of Dr. J. W. Weiser to accept the position of health officer of the city. Dr. Weiser has been practicing medicine for several years in the county and has a wide reputation. He has been a member of the Idaho State Medical Association and is a graduate of the University of Idaho. He is a man of high character and is well qualified for the position.

OUT-LOOK CLUB MEETING

The Outlook Club held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Weiser. The meeting was held in the parlors of the home and was attended by a large number of the club members. The program for the evening was as follows: Reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, report of the secretary, and a paper by Mrs. J. W. Weiser on "The Outlook Club." The paper was well received and was followed by a discussion. The meeting closed with a prayer and a song.

WAS SENTENCED, THEN PARDONED

Robert W. Taylor, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of one year for a crime committed in 1911, has been pardoned by the governor. Taylor was arrested in the city of Wemmer in 1911 and was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of one year. He has since been employed in the city and has been a member of the Outlook Club. The governor has pardoned Taylor because he has shown good character and has been a member of the Outlook Club for a number of years.

THE SUITS

The suits are on models designed especially for young men, with the more conservative, every suit hand-tailored with a fitted collar, hand-made unbreakable fronts.

Hitop Hood

Made with a full double sole, Goodway welt and calfskin visorized up, every pair guaranteed.

Others at $6.50 and $7.75

FISHER HELPS HOMESTEADERS

Washington, Nov. 13.—Secretary Fisher today announced that the government will help the homesteaders in the western states by providing them with the necessary equipment for their farms. The government will provide them with tools, seeds, and other necessities. This is a very important step in helping the homesteaders to establish their farms and to improve the lives of the people in the western states.

BEATTIE'S LAST HOPE GONE

Richmond, Va., Nov. 13.—Beattie's last hope of securing a grant on appeal in the case of the land in the state of Virginia has been lost. The court has ruled against her and she will have to give up the land. This is a very sad situation for Beattie and her family, who have been struggling to make a living on the land for many years.

PERFECTION

An Innovation in Oil Heaters

The Perfection Smokes Oil Heater, with its flameless and smokeless operation, is an innovation in any room, whether in the country or city home.

No noise is quite complete without a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a necessity in the fall and spring, when it is too warm to use the regular heating apparatus, and too cool to use a furnace.

The Perfection is the most reliable and economical portable heater ever made. An automatic safety valve prevents burning in the case of a gas leak.

The standard heater always presents a fire hazard, as it is usually filled with kerosene, and it is a matter of time before it will become a fire. The Perfection is a gas heater and it is a safe heater.

The Taming of Red Butte Western...

By FRANCIS LYND

FRANCIS LYND, author of the popular Western series, returns with a new installment of his saga. The story follows the adventures of a cowboy in the rugged West. The plot is filled with action, romance, and the classic struggle between good and evil in a lawless frontier. The author's vivid descriptions and compelling characters have made this series a bestseller. This new volume promises to be just as exciting as the previous ones.

Readers are invited to immerse themselves in the world of the Wild West. The story is set in a time of great conflict and change, where the fate of the nation hangs in the balance. The author's expertise in the genre is evident in every page, from the detailed descriptions of the landscape to the intricate plots and memorable characters.

For those who love a good Western, this is a must-read. The author's ability to create a sense of place and atmosphere is unparalleled. The story is a blend of history and fiction, offering a glimpse into the lives of the men who shaped the West. The action is non-stop, and the stakes are high. This is a story that will keep you turning pages late into the night.
