THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1892.

Some businessmen's associations are in the habit of electing "boomers" whose business it is to boom the town. Weiser has no such officer, but it has a number of citizens who are constantly booming it, and we believe that this method is the best one. Let every citizen do his part in boosting Weiser and the result will be apparent in a short time.

Mr. Ed Hodgson has sold his entire stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods to Mr. Ed. Hall, who will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Hodgson has not yet decided what he will do, but will probably go to Portland.

The Weiser Republican has changed hands, Mr. Ed. Hall having purchased the interest of Mr. Hodgson. Mr. Hall is a practical printer and will no doubt make a success of the paper.

Mr. Ed. Hall, who has purchased the clothing stock of Mr. Ed. Hodgson, has had considerable experience in the clothing business, having been employed by Mr. Hodgson for a number of years. He is a thorough gentleman and will no doubt receive a liberal share of the patronage of the people of Weiser.

Mr. Hodgson has had considerable experience in the newspaper business, having been employed on the Republican
