

Mrs. Etta Unger dies in Salem

Cambridge

Mrs. Ray Ross received word that an aunt, Mrs. Etta Unger, had died at Salem, Ore., Friday morning. Mrs. Unger will be remembered by early residents of this area, as having resided on Pine Creek, on the place now owned by the Hansens. When she lived in Cambridge, before going to Oregon to live, the family made their home in the former Vivian Boyles house. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hutchinson, Kennewick, Wash., were in Ontario, Ore., on a business trip Thursday and Friday of last week so to visit with them, his sister, Mrs. Frank Shirts, drove there for an overnight visit with them.

Mrs. Frank Shirts received news from her sister, Judy, that she and her husband, Dana Haas, were leaving Dallas, Texas for a new home in California where he now has employment. Also, they will be nearer her mother, Mrs. Violet Hutchinson, who is being cared for in a rest home there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Murray, Mampa, returned home the fore part of last week after spending a few days with a daughter and her husband, Dale and Gloria Lilly.

Mrs. Ha Wilson left Thursday for Owasso, Okla., to spend about two months as a guest of her daughter, Deanna, and her husband, Bob Harvey, and their two children. Daughters, Mrs.

Kelli Ford and Mrs. Morris McCoy, and grand daughter, Mrs. Jim Bromrose took Mrs. Wilson to Boise where she boarded a plane for the trip. She arrived safely at her destination, as she reported to the family here. They received her telephone call fifteen minutes after they arrived home from Boise.

Cheryl Lilly, a student majoring in Special Education, in the university in Pocatello, arrived home Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lilly.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mink went to Council Sunday to attend the golden wedding anniversary celebration given to honor Fred and Anna Lappin. The celebration was held in the Council senior citizens hall. Mrs. Theima Minkake submitted to back surgery in St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise Friday. She was reported as getting along nicely.

Women of the Cambridge Baptist church met for a Mission Circle meeting in the annex of the church Thursday afternoon. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. George Ford and Mrs. Melvin Dotson. Mrs. Earl Armasco was in charge of Devotional Services and Mrs. Wesley Jones was in charge of the program. Business of the afternoon included completing plans for the Dec. 7, bazaar.

Mrs. Blanch Smith and Mrs. Veda Harrell, Caldwell, were overnight guests Wednesday. Mrs. Howland were in Payette Wednesday. Mrs. Howland made the trip to give the DAR "Good Citizen's" test at the Payette school. Winner in that test will be eligible for State competition.
