MASONIC-BLOCK

That FIFTY DOLLAR Men's Automobile Bear Overcoat in our store window is not a guide to our stock—it is 62 inches long and is made to wear as light as coat and sleeping coat.

We are strong on the medium priced coats, such as the Idaho climatic demands from day to day from October to April—say that's about a happy medium and buys a Top Coat good enough to wear anywhere and better than $15 or $20 usually buy—We carry more Overcoats to date than ever before for the beginning of the season. Values did not hold it for you.

9.75 12.50

Masonic Block is the Bargain Spot.

LIFE CROSSED OUT IN STONE QUARRY

U. A. Johnson Meets Fatal Death

U. A. Johnson, 35 years of age, was killed in a stone quarry near the town of Caldwell, Idaho, on Monday, November 11, 1919. He was employed by the Caldwell Stone & Lumber Co. as a laborer. The accident occurred while he was working on a large block of granite. He was struck by a falling piece of stone, which struck him on the head, fracturing his skull and causing instant death.

The body was found in the quarry and was taken to the Caldwell hospital. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by accident. The Caldwell Stone & Lumber Co. is the owner of the quarry. The company is a well-known business in the area.

PRINTERS BE KEPT FROM

FOR PUNISHING JEROME

Printers of the Caldwell Press, Caldwell, Idaho, have been ordered by the court to keep their presses from publishing any further information regarding the case of Jerome, who is accused of a crime. The court's order is based on the grounds that the publication of such information would be prejudicial to the fair trial of the case.

The Caldwell Press is a well-known newspaper in the area. The case of Jerome is a major news item in the community. The court's decision is a significant one, as it limits the press's ability to report on the case.

What Became of the Money?

It calls on the present state administration to account for the disappearance of the money which was raised for the purpose of the construction of the Idaho State Capitol building. The money was raised through a series of public bond issues and was intended to be used for the construction of the new capitol building. However, the money has disappeared, and the state administration has failed to provide a satisfactory explanation for its disappearance.

PATRIOTIC APPEAL TO WOMEN OF IDAHO

The League of Women Voters of Idaho is making a patriotic appeal to the women of the state. The appeal is for the purpose of raising funds to support the construction of the Idaho State Capitol building. The women are urged to contribute to the fund, as their contribution will help to build a more beautiful and more useful capitol building for the state.

The Jar of Coughing
