

IDAHO'S GREAT EXHIBIT AT CHICAGO

Will be of incalculable Benefit to State—Will be Means of Big Immigration to the State.

State Commissioner A. P. Fulton, who has just returned from the World's Fair at Chicago, has returned with a report that the exhibit of Idaho at the fair was a success beyond all expectations. He says that the exhibit was the most complete and up-to-date ever shown in the West, and that it attracted a large and interested audience. He says that the exhibit was the means of big immigration to the state, and that it will be of incalculable benefit to the state.

The exhibit was the work of the Idaho State Fair Association, and was the result of the efforts of the fair association and the people of the state. It was the most complete and up-to-date ever shown in the West, and it attracted a large and interested audience. It was the means of big immigration to the state, and it will be of incalculable benefit to the state.
