Masquerader

CHAPTER I.
The masquerade, therefore, was held on the evening of the 13th of January. It was held at the Masquerade Hall, which had been decorated with garlands of flowers and streamers of every color. The hall was crowded with people, many of whom were in elaborate costumes. The music was played by a band of musicians who were seated in a recessed part of the hall. The dancing was done in the center of the hall, where a large number of couples were seen. The atmosphere was one of excitement and enjoyment. The evening passed in a happy and carefree manner, and the guests departed at midnight.
