It was a very dark night when the door opened and a man came in. He was dressed in a dark suit and a top hat, and he looked very mysterious. He went to the window and looked out into the night. The moon was shining brightly, and the stars were twinkling in the sky. He then turned back to the door and looked at the man who had just entered. He seemed to be waiting for something, and he looked very impatient. The man who had entered looked at him and then spoke.

"What is it?" he asked. "What do you want?" The man who had entered looked at him and then spoke again. "I want to see you," he said. "I have something to tell you." The man who had entered looked at him and then spoke again. "What is it?" he asked. "What do you want?" The man who had entered looked at him and then spoke again. "I want to see you," he said.
