This is a reproduction of the front page of the first issue of the Weiser Signal, successor to the Weiser Leader which was established in 1892. R. E. Lockwood, Signal publisher, was the most famous of pioneer newspaper-men and is credited with being the promotor of the Seven Devils and Thunder Mountain mining regions. The engraving on this page was made by the Idaho Statesman and will also be published in the Statesman at a later date.

When we were nearly ready for press last Thursday, we were taken quite ill and was unable to enter the office again until the following Tuesday. The old bum who was helping us immediately went on a high-license spree, and the paper was not issued. Everything in this issue was set up last week and the locals are a little stale. This is our misfortune, not our fault.

The SIGNAL sends out 600 sample copies this week.

Frank Smith's children are down with the scarlet fever.

The Mill machinery is rapidly being placed in position.

Mat Richardson is superintending the bar at the Weiser hotel.

Now is the time to subscribe for the SIGNAL, while in its infancy.

Hattle & Kivett are erecting a barb-some brick residence which bids fair to be a dandy when finished.

If you want the best goods for the least money go to Sommer & Gorrie.

The U. P. has withdrawn the fast mail train and will hereafter run but two passenger trains a day.

Fine California wine, just arrived at the Palace.

Craven has closed his butcher shop and will hereafter peddle beef twice a week with his wagon.

H. C. Newmate arrived from Denver Monday, and last night by the the Seven Devils.

A very pleasant and sociable dance took place in the office room of the Weiser hotel last Monday evening.

The Sommer & Gorrie building is now ready to plaster. It will be ready for occupation about Jan. 1st.

Jessup & Newton have moved their stock of goods into the new Sisler, Lodge & Jessup building this week.

Do not be backward about where Going with us we shall constantly circulate 500 copies throughout the country.

The SIGNAL will have a large force of correspondents. You will hear news from all over the country in its columns.

There will be divine services in the Baptist church, by the Rev. W. H. Zuver, at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Dr Williams has moved his building which was lately occupied by Jessup & Numbers from its old position to Main street.

Mr. F. N. Orme and wife, ex we learn, will shortly leave for Ohio, where they will visit friends and relatives until spring.

Weiser is likely to have a Christmas tree this time, as some young ladies have been meeting with good success in soliciting subscriptions for that purpose.

Look at Sommer & Gorrie's advertisement. They will sell all kinds of merchandise at reduced prices before moving into their new brick store.

We have located in the building occupied by Geo. Davis for the present. We will probably remove to other quarters in the near future.

George A. Davis is sole agent for The Scribner Home and Cattle Food in Washington County. Send for a circular and you will give it a trial.

Sommer & Gorrie have a job lot of ladies, misses and childrens cloaks, also of gents overcoats, which they will sell at astonishing low prices.

From a private letter from Warren, it is learned that there is not a possible of snow in that camp. On the contrary, they are having warm, sunshiney days, though it is quite frosty at nights.

C. W. Townley has sold the Hotel Weiser to Sterns & Bostwick, late of Baker City. We did not learn the consideration. These gentlemen will make it equal to any in the state.

Sommer & Gorrie will close out their stock of ladies' misses' and children's cloaks, fifty per cent below the regular price. Go and see them, before they are all sold out.

A neat little book, in pamphlet form, giving the history of the Seven Devils is being circulated throughout the country. Next season will probably create a stampede, so great that it can scarcely be realized at present, to this camp.

Our old time merchant Mr. W. W. Cowins has sold his entire stock of general merchandise to Mr. John O. Peters of Council Valley, who will soon remove it to that place. Mr. Peters looks for a good deal of travel to the mines next summer.

The entire SIGNAL outfit was purchased from the Great Western Type Foundry, Omaha, Neb., and we recommend them to all printers as a house where you can get good bargains, fair treatment and first-class goods.

"Keep in the middle oh de road" would seem to have been first uttered by some one walking over Weiser side walks. If you value life and limb don't travel the side walks after night, especially by the post-office, but take the middle of the road.

Bob. Beavis was in town this week. He brought down 4,000 pounds of ore from the South Peacock mine and has 10,000 pounds more at his ranch in Middle valley. When this is hauled it will probably close the shipment of ore for this season.

On account of being very unwell, we had rushed to get out our first issue we are short of local items, besides being one day late, this week and perhaps a few typographical errors may be found in our columns. We shall endeavor to give more local news in the future.

The W. S. L. A. entertainment last Friday evening was a decided success. Time and space forbids a county mention. Over $70 was realized. The object of the W. S. L. A. is a worthy one and they should receive the support of the people of our town.

Don't fail to look over advertising columns over each and every week, as we will be constantly adding to them and doing this is that may be beneficial to you. Our advertisers are strictly business men and know what they are doing, and they will tell you through our columns facts that you will be glad to know.

Our young folks are becoming anxious to indulge in the pastime of skating; but the ice were none, though there should be five several feet thick this winter according to indications, as we learn, that muskrats have built their houses with three stories and a basement.

Pay Up.

All those knowing themselves indebted to me are requested to come forward and settle at once, and save costs. W. W. COWINS.

A Mistaken Idea.

The object and intentions of this paper has been grievously misjudged by some of our citizens. We hope, as time progresses, that the honorable, just and generous course we intend to pursue will convince them of their error, and that when they see that we seek the injury of none but the welfare of all, they will look upon us with greater favor.

THE SILVER BELLE!

QUEST OF MOUNTAIN MAIDS!

A Short Sketch of This Famous Mine.

About four Messrs. Flower and Heidrick discovered and located the now famous mine known as the Silver Belle. They ran a tunnel in the ledge 70 feet and learned that the vein was as immense as it was rich. Mr. Heidrick sold his half of the mine to Mr. Flower shortly afterward, and the latter gentleman in time sold it to Mr. Louis Sommer, of Weiser, Idaho, who subsequently, in 1887, purchased the other half and became sole owner. In the same year C. C. Wing purchased a one-half interest of Mr. Sommer, since which time these two gentlemen have been steadily pushing development on their property. At a distance of 165 feet below the summit of the mountain upon which the mine is situated the ore first crops out, and from here to the summit the whole vein is exposed. At this point the first tunnel was begun and pushed to a distance of 145 feet, all the way through rich ore. Then they dropped down the mountain side 100 feet and ran in 140 feet and sunk a winze 65 feet in depth. Again they ran a tunnel 160 feet to the bottom of the winze and 30 feet beyond, making the lower tunnel 190 feet in length and the ore still reaching an unknown distance ahead. Besides these tunnels there are several cross cuts. The vein is three and one-half feet wide and is struck 30 feet from the mouth of the lower tunnel. The result of these developments is plain to be seen. Between the summit of the mountain and lower tunnels is exposed a body of ore 300 feet in depth, 140 feet in length and three and one-half feet in width, or 147,000 cubic feet ore averging 43 ounces of silver to the ton throughout the mine; the ore in some places running as high as 230 ounces to the ton. The vein dips north-east and south-west with hanging and foot wall of different grades of porphery. Ten owners have during the last two months, worked 50 tons of ore through the Long & Biddle sampler, at a total cost for hauling, working, &c., of $16 per ton. The ore thus worked yielded $45 per ton above expenses. The mine has not been worked, as yet, in a thorough, systematic manner. The ore worked was that taken out during development work, and was worked simply to pay the expenses of the mine. Next season Messrs. Sommer & Wing will work the mine in earnest, and some of men will be employed in a manner. Arrangements are now being made with Long & Biddle to deliver ten tons per day to the sampler. We should give further progress on this valuable and important mine in the future.

When we read in the Spokane Review that, the Copper Key was recently sold to a Boston people by Al. Durant and H. E. Lockwood, consideration, $30,000.

We were knocked completely silly. We rushed out and called the crowd in to drink, but when surprise our hand deep down into our threadbare jeans for the wherewithal to pay for the same, and lacking some of the $30,000, which should have been our just share of the sale, we fell in a dead swoon, and upon coming to were told that E. Voices Our Sentiments.

The Caldwell Tribune, in speaking of projected improvements in size and appearances says:

"When the Tribune made the last change, it thought it had reached all that was demanded of a paper in a town the size of Caldwell, and intended to rest contented for a time. But Caldwell has an appreciative and enterprise-loving people, and so they did they show their appreciation of the Tribune's enterprise by advertising and subscription, that we feel encouraged to take another step forward. The Tribune publishers can publish a splendid paper, and they will if their support will let them. From present indications the support is not only willing, but demands it. Consequently we have ordered new material, and in the course of a few months the paper will be enlarged and improved. The Tribune is a credit to Caldwell. No business man is ashamed to send a sample of his home paper away. Whenever any from home and confronted with a copy of the Tribune, he does not have to blush and apologize, as too many enthusiastic citizens of small towns do. You can send the Tribune to any stranger, without commenting your own, and he will size Caldwell up as having from 3,000 to 5,000 inhabitants. One good paper, printed in a neat business manner, is worth ten half-starved looking sheets. The Tribune suggests prosperity to the stranger, and a sentence in such a paper has weight with men looking for investment."

The sentiments expressed above apply to other places and papers as well, and in the case of Weiser it is an exact fit. If the people of this county show by their support that they appreciate our efforts, we assure them that they shall have a paper worthy of a place in the front ranks of the State press. We shall improve the SIGNAL as fast as our patronage will warrant, and hope soon to be able to print both sides at home.

Townsites A-sacrificing.

On last Saturday, December 6th, a number of the Teachers of Washington county, assembled at the school house in Weiser, for the purpose of forming a Teachers Association. A committee on permanent organization was appointed, with Prof. Abbott, as chairman, and they proceeded to organize.

First on the programme was an address on "Education" by the Hon. T. C. Galloway.

Then came "Quotations from Longfellows Poems" by the teachers also, a song by Prof. Abbott and wife. A committee was then appointed to draft a constitution.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at half past one o'clock, p. m.

Royally Named At Cambridge School Carnival

By SHARON BUMGARNER

The annual school carnival was held last Friday evening and was reported a success. There wasn't a program this year, but the students provided a lot of activity and good food was provided by the parents. Guy Fraser, sophomore, and Dewayne Horn, senior, were chosen queen and king of the carnival.

State tests were given to the juniors and freshmen recently.

Nine-weeks tests were given last week and report cards have been sent out.

A Victory dance was held after the football game with Nampa. The dance was well attended and everyone reported that they had a good time.

The sophomore class rings came last week.

Basic Dancing Taught

Seniors were in charge of the Guidance program for November. Mrs. Eldon Pearson came and gave an interesting talk on dancing. She then showed the student body how to waltz. She is now giving basic dancing instruction to students once a week, from 4 to 5.

The seniors are busy on learning their parts for their play, "Grandma Goes Wild," to be given in December.

Guidance programs were held last Thursday with Mr. Day from Payette speaking to the seniors. Electrical engineering was the topic. Juniors were given instruction on career planning. Orientation by Miss Portia Deer, sophomore counselor, and movies from Game Warden Mike Throckmorton; and Superintendent A. Jay Bond gave freshmen instructions on teaching.

New glass bookboards are being installed in the gymnasium for the basketball season.

"C" Club Initiates

New members to be initiated into the "C" club are Joe Lopez Nampa-Cambridge game were LaVelle Edwards, Mike Vogel, Bob Blazier and Jim Fry.

Band and chorus students have begun work on the Christmas concert to be given December 19. Mrs. John Bloom is in charge.

Student Council members went to McCall last week to attend the workshop.

Mrs. Marguerette Franklin was recently before the Methodist Home Ec class on hair styling and good grooming.

The FHA girls and FFA boys are planning a Sadie Hawkins dance which will be held November 17.

College of Idaho Coming Cultural Center of Area

The College of Idaho is embarking on an intensive program to plan for its future, President Tom E. Shearer has announced.

"With the completion of the Jewett Chapel-Auditorium, the college will become the educational, religious and cultural center for the Intermountain area," he said. "This opens new avenues of opportunity and responsibility. The college must make concrete plans as to its future expansion in terms of the academic program, facilities and financial structure."

To begin the project, a Planning Conference has been set for November 18 in the student union on campus. Representatives of 10 different groups of interested persons will be meeting with that day to help determine goals and means of achieving them.

Groups represented will be trustees, students, alumni, rural and agricultural, community, friends of the college, parents, estate planning, foundations, business organizations and industry.

The opening general session of the conference will get under way at 9:45 a. m. The individual discussion groups will meet for their first session at 10:30 a. m. After a luncheon, the discussion groups will reconvene at 1:15. Following a coffee break at 2:45 there will be a closing general session with group chairmen's reports. Adjournment is anticipated for 4:15 p. m.

Harvest Dinner Set November 18

The Community club, meeting last Thursday evening at Hyline hall, decided to hold the annual harvest dinner on November 18. The community is invited to attend. Dr. Burdic of Ontario was guest speaker and talked on Civil Defense. After listening to him, everyone felt better about a nuclear war and felt we have a chance. "Refreshments" were served to 53 by the hostess, Mrs. Vern Mathiesen, Mrs. Jim Halsey and Mrs. Dewey Magwire.

Mrs. Paul Mendiola and girls visited with her father, Frank Smith, in Vale on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob White of Vale visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Merle Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Vickery and family of Letha visited Sunday afternoon with her brother, Earl family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farley. Additional Sunday guests were Mrs. Ralph Broadhurst and Steve and Mrs. Clara Farley of Payette. —Mrs. Bob Peterson

100 At Dinner Of Farm Bureau

Nearly 100 members attended the annual Farm Bureau dinner held Friday

● OREGON SLOPE evening, November 4, at the District hall on Oregon Slope. Entertainment included an accordion number by Roddy Smith. Lyn Bence and Terry Heeb sang a duet accompanied by Cathy Russell. Judd and David Stelling played a violin duet and Carol Walker, Weiser, gave several amusing readings. The women's association of the church were Mrs. Elizabeth Eisenhauth, Weiser, and Mrs. Muriel Hubbell, Slope. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hart were in charge of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bassford were in Ola, Friday.

Roddy Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Smith, attended the annual Farm Bureau banquet held last Thursday evening at a cafe in Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Medler, Slope, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Medler, Alsdorf, Idaho, all attended the smorgasbord held Friday evening at the church in Payette.—Mrs. Joseph McKenna

Member Drive Among Topics Of War I Veterans

The meeting of Weiser Valley Barracks 1176, Veterans of World War I, Sunday afternoon, was well attended. There were several from Nampa and Caldwell.

A communication from Department Commander Grant Kunkle was read, giving an outline of what was done at the national convention held in Dallas, Texas, the last part of September. Talks were given by visiting veterans about a membership drive.

Several of the Ladies Auxiliary from Caldwell and Nampa spent the afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Marshall. At a joint meeting held in October, an Auxiliary was formed in Weiser and expects to meet regularly after the coming meeting the first part of December.

At the joint October meeting, 33 veterans and Auxiliary members were present.

only a beautiful, patented
SIEGLER
OIL HOME HEATER
gives so much wonderful comfort

new heating comfort
This new Siegler Oil Heater is all new, from the inside out! The entire walls of the inner unit create super heat tubes that surround the flame. The result is more heat over your floor, more fuel savings, and undreamed of heating comfort. Why put up with an "expensive" cheap heater when a Siegler will pay for itself with the fuel it saves.

new styling
Clean, trim lines with a "picture frame" front. The genuine porcelain enamel is rich cordovan with bright gold trim. This Siegler will be the handsomest and warmest friend in your home!
