

FROM CROMWELL MEET IN WISCONSIN
 Annual meeting of the Wisconsin State Bar Association held in Milwaukee, Wis., on the 27th and 28th.

The 27th annual meeting of the Wisconsin State Bar Association was held in Milwaukee, Wis., on the 27th and 28th. The convention was held at the Hotel Sherman, and was attended by approximately 100 members of the association.

The convention was opened on the 27th by a session of the executive committee, which reported on the work of the association during the past year. The report was highly commendatory and was followed by a session of the general assembly, which adopted several resolutions.

The 28th day of the convention was devoted to a series of lectures and discussions on various subjects of interest to the bar. The lectures were given by prominent lawyers from various parts of the state, and were highly interesting and instructive.

The convention closed on the 28th with a banquet and a social hour. The members of the association expressed their appreciation of the excellent arrangements made for the convention, and their hope that the next meeting will be held in another part of the state.
