Mid-Winter Clearing Sale

Throughout the day continuing from morning till evening hundreds desired to enter our store, being unaware that would be closed. For this reason, we have decided to continue our Mid-Winter Clearing Sale during this week.

During the past week our Mid-Winter Clearing Sale has found eager response from the shopping public. The six days of this sale were the greatest from standpoints of volume business than any other six days of January during our mercantile career.

The thrifty housewife, the shrewd and economically inclined have been attendance at this sale. Further opportunities are now offered to you, by the fact that the store will be closed for the day Saturday, Jan. 27. You can think of, but is offered here for a saving in its purchase. Now is the time to supply your needs for many weeks to come.

Acting on the advice of the insurance adjuster, our Ladies Ready-to-Wear Department on the second floor will remain closed for the present week. This will in no way affect the continuance or interruption of business in any of our other departments, and will continue as heretofore.

To our many friends and patrons, we desire to express our regret of the unfortunate occurrence which rendered it necessary to close our store Saturday, and which we hope has not inconvenienced them greatly.
