GOV. HAINES DELIVERS HIS MAIDEN MESSAGE

Keynote Throughout Lengthy Message is Economy and a Square Deal—Urges That Rich and Poor be Treated Alike.

Gov. Haines delivered his maiden message to the legislature today, and throughout the address he stressed the importance of economy and a square deal for all.

The message was delivered in the senate chamber at 10 o'clock and lasted for nearly two hours. It was the longest message ever delivered by a governor in Idaho.

Gov. Haines said that the state was in a position to meet the needs of the people, but that it was necessary to exercise the utmost economy in the use of public funds.

"I urge that the rich and poor be treated alike," he said. "I urge that the state be managed in a way that will benefit the people as a whole."

He also urged that the state should be managed in a way that would promote the interests of the people, and that the state should be managed in a way that would promote the interests of the people.

THREE LIVES SAVED FROM ROSEGRANS WRECK

Quartermaster Fred Peter Says Almost Crew Were Drowned Below Decks Others Saved by Life Saving Crew.

Quartermaster Fred Peter says that almost the entire crew of the Rosegrans was drowned in the wreck of the ship. He says that only three lives were saved, and that these were saved by the life saving crew.

Peter says that the ship was wrecked in the night, and that the crew was unable to get out of the ship. He says that the life saving crew came to the rescue, and that they saved three lives.

"I am glad that three lives were saved," he says. "I am glad that the life saving crew did their duty, and that they saved the lives of the crew members."
