SUFFRAGETTES ACCUSE OF DYNAMITING HOPE

Residence of Lloyd George Near 1-2 Destroyed by Explosion of Bomb Police Say Women Are Responsible

LONDON, Feb. 15.—An explosion that broke the unity of the suffrage movement in London, destroyed the residence of Lloyd George near 1-2, and destroyed the hope of the suffragettes. The explosion, which occurred at 11:15 a. m., was caused by a bomb thrown by a woman. The bomb was thrown from a window of the residence. The explosion destroyed the residence and killed a woman. The suffragettes accused the woman of dynamiting hope.
