FEAR ENEMIES SWORN IN AS PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The first test of the new president's courage will be his ability to stand up to the enemies of the republic. The president-elect, Mr. Hoover, is expected to take office on March 4, and his first act will be to appoint a cabinet. It is believed that he will select a group of men who are known for their loyalty to the republic and their ability to stand up to the enemies of the republic.

FOUND DEAD BY HIS STOVE

CALIFORNIA, Jan. 2.—The body of a man was found dead by his stove in a rooming house in California. The man was found lying face down on the floor, and his body was covered with soot. The police are investigating the case, and it is believed that the man died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

SUGGESTS BOTH WITHDRAW

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Governor Charles O'Connor of Oklahoma has suggested that both he and the incumbent president, Mr. Hoover, should withdraw from the race for the presidency. Governor O'Connor has been a leading contender for the presidency, and his suggestion has caused a great deal of speculation.

THE REVIVAL EFFORTS

The revival efforts of the church in this city are being carried on with great vigor. The church is holding a series of revival meetings, and the attendance is expected to be very large. The church is also conducting a series of social work projects, and the community is expected to benefit greatly from these efforts.
