Hitt Mountain Holidays: March 15th and 16th

THIS FEARLESS FOURSOME spent some two hours hunting for a friend's lost ski. Skiers are required to wear safety straps so that when they fall and lose a ski it will stay attached to the skier. In this case the strap was attached to the cable, which pulled off, leaving the ski to slide effortlessly "over the hill and through the woods." Seen from left are George Sporopoulou, Debbie Thomson, Doug Dick and Debra Jackson.

THERE ARE SCHOOL BUSES and there are school buses... and the most popular run all winter has been the Saturday trip to Hill Mountain. If it takes patience — and not a little luck to match 50 pairs of skis — not to mention poles — with 50 eager kids waiting to "load their skis" to the Hill House. Hill Mountain Holidays has been scheduled this weekend, March 15-16. These skiers in costumes Sunday may ski free, according to Palla West, resort manager. Team races between various towns are being planned for Saturday.

DOTTIE (MRS. DALE) Emerit, City Recreation director, is "everybody's friend." She cheers the cold and wet, lauds the adventurous — and incidentally, collects the toll... 50 cents per skier on the bus. She also counts noses.

EMMETT HARTNETT is the ever patient bus driver... who also dispenses hand aids. Deciding that "just sitting" all day had little to offer, Emmett can be seen traversing the slopes with the kids.

STEVE STUBBS and Paul Rowan cramped on the same seat in the ski bus.

CHRIS WOOD, CAMBRIDGE, took time out to wave this one. If you think that's all there is to it, however, you've got another thought coming. Investigation shows that there are waves for every condition — in every color — all a poor unfortunate parent can do to "provide the right kind for the right moment."

JOINING THE LUNCH bunch in the Hill Mountain lodge were Kyle Gray, Ed, and Carl O'Leary.

DEBBIE THOMSON, left, and Paula Dobash were two of some 50 legal skiers who took advantage of the City Recreation-sponsored ski bus on a recent Saturday.

Ski Club Members, Mothers Sponsor Public Card Party

Both bridge and pinocle were played during the card party sponsored by students of the Cambridge High School Ski Club and their mothers. The party was held in the multipurpose room of the elementary school building, Monday evening, March 10. Eight tables were set up for pinocle and four for bridge.

Pinocle score winners were Mrs. Bert Vogel, John Holland, Mrs. Gary Gladhart and Ray Pultz. Bridge winners were Mrs. George Danielson and Melvin Manning.

Members of the 12 ski club members, who met in Lakoy's cafe prior to the party date to plan the affair, expressed their grateful appreciation to those who attended the party and also to those who worked toward its success.

Money contributed by the guests is being added to the ski club treasury. — Elsie Marti

Earl Craigs Home From Mexico Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Craig returned home recently after a vacation of nearly two months. They visited in California, Arizona, Nevada, and this Mexico.

On Jan. 10 they joined the all-ready-vacationing Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clelland of Cambridge and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Feldman of Weiser and were on their merry way to Mexico, crossing the border on the 24th.

After the cars had all had an oil change, they had loaded up on supplies they were destined to haul back.

They visited Alamos, which was once the capital of all Mexican territory, including California, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona. It had grown in the country dating back to 1530. Spanish had taken over the mines early in history.

They spent 17 days at Mazatlan about 1,000 miles below the border. Here Mr. and Mrs. Clelland turned back because he became ill. Mr. and Mrs. Feldman went on farther south for a week.

The Craigs stayed on the beach at a trailer court in Los Cabos. Their vacation highlights on each side of the court. Near the town of Colima in the mountain capital of Mexico, 6,000 acres of them. They saw tomatoes in all stages of ripeness from planting to picking. They were told it takes 20 days to ripen them.

At Los Mochis they saw the workers cutting fire to the sugar cane fields to burn the leaves off so they could harvest the cane. This was on the night of the 10th of the month.

The machinery used to cut the cane and haul it to the mill was similar to that used in the U.S. except the high quality of work. Imported goods were quite low.

The temperature changed but ten degrees from night to day. The reason was a warm 74 degree, just right for swimming. They returned home to find a few feet of cold, white snow. Welcome home — Jean N. Smith.

"KALDEAN SAFARI" an outdoor film acclaimed as probably the most action-packed and exciting photographed in recent years, will be shown at the Star Theatre at 7 and 915 p.m. Monday, March 17. The two-hour film is all-new in full color and sound. It is part documentary, part adventure, part educational and part travelogue. Unusual for this type for presentation is the direct sound track which brings to the audience a chilling scream of the bald eagle — along with the hair-raising growls of bears and other sounds peculiar to the Far North country. At a showing in Spokane, Wash., more than 10,000 jammed into the coliseum in two nights to see the picture. Besides the magnificent scenery, rugged hunting and fishing sequences, the movie has some rarely photographed scenes of Eskimo life in a tiny village just three miles from the Russian border. Trophy hunters, seen from behind the hunter's shoulder, for giant polar bear, bull moose, Dall sheep, huge brown bear, grizzly bear and caribou have many outstanding close-ups.
