

HIGH ART SUITS

Are not ordinary clothing except in price. Any suit is Coat, Pants and Vest, or are High Art Suits, with this difference.

High Art Clothes

Are hand-tailored—collar is hand folded to make the rounding curve. Buttonholes hand worked to give them strength. Canvas thoroughly shrunk to retain shape. Hair cloth the best possible elastic—every seam sewed with silk and shape and fit the best. The coeave shoulders are the exclusive high art mark for 1926. Single or double breasted. New shades wood brown and gun metal grays.

WESSENER OF DEATH

AGAR YENTS VIKTOR

A. J. Hughes and Spencer Wessener, both Drs. Insp. After Long Illness.

Spencer Wessener, who passed away at the death of his wife, Mrs. Wessener, on March 18, 1926, in the 78th year of his age, was born in the town of Wessener, Wis., on March 18, 1848. He was educated in the common schools of his native town, and attended the University of Wisconsin, where he received his degree in medicine in 1872. He practiced medicine in various parts of the state, and was a member of the Wisconsin Medical Society. He was a devoted husband and father, and is survived by his wife, Mrs. Wessener, and several children.

WILSON-SMITH RETURN

A. J. Wilson-Smith, who was arrested on the charge of having been guilty of the murder of a woman, was released from jail on the condition that he should remain in the custody of his friends. He is now residing in the city of Chicago.

VICTOR FLOUR

After five years' experience in the grocery business, we can honestly say that this is the best all-round flour we have ever sold, and we do not believe it can be equaled in this city at the price.

IT MAKES MORE BREAD

and better bread, than any other flour you can get for the money. It is made especially for use in selected spring wheat. We don't make much on it at the price, but it is our best advertisement. After you have tried it you will understand why our customers will take no other brand.
