LET PEOPLE RULE, SAYS ROOSEVELT

ROOSEVELT'S ATTITUDE ON POPULAR GOVERNMENT

People's Voice Must Prevail

The nation's progress is being retarded, Roosevelt says, because the people's voice is not being heard.

He believes that the people's voice is the only voice that counts, and that it is the duty of the government to listen to it.

He says that the people are the only ones who have the right to govern, and that the government is only a servant of the people.
