Official Paper of Washington County

THIS GALLED ADJES WINCE.

A newspaper that attempts to rid the body politic of corruption and is fearless in its condemnation of the use of money in debauching political candidates must expect to be the target of attacks from those who have profited by such methods. Crowded with the will they will stop at falsehood, vilification and character assassination in order to muddy the waters and shield themselves from the searching light of truth.

The Signal met the conditions of the Signal after reading the editorial which it tried to make the people believe was suppressed.

The Signal decided to support Judge Albright for senator because its editor had heard him deliver a speech at a Lincoln day banquet that was filled with patriotism and bubbling over with true sentiment.
