THE WEISER DAILY SIGNAL
WARRIOR, WASHINGTON COUNTY, IDAHO, MONDAY, APRIL 1, 1918

ROOSEVELT
The President's message to Congress, which was received here last night, was a landmark in the history of the nation. It was a message of hope and courage, and it was a message that was heard by every man, woman and child in the land. The President's words were a beacon of light in a dark and stormy night, and they were a source of strength and inspiration to all who were struggling against the forces of darkness and despair.

Lady Warwick Says Life Is Best Worth Living at Fifty

SENATOR TAYLOR'S RECORD
Senator Taylor's record in the Senate has been one of the most distinguished and successful in the history of the State. He has served his country with honor and integrity, and he has been a constant and effective voice for the people of Idaho. His record is a testament to his ability, his courage, and his unwavering commitment to the public good.

NEBRASKA FLOODS DO DAMAGE
The floods in Nebraska have done considerable damage to the crops and property of the people. The water has inundated large areas of land, and it has destroyed many of the crops that were planted in the spring. The damage is estimated to be in the millions of dollars, and it is expected that the recovery will take several years.

TAYLOR SATISFIED WITH OUTLOOK

ROOSEVELT MAKES BITTER CHARGES
President Roosevelt has made bitter charges against the administration of Woodrow Wilson. He has accused the administration of corruption, inefficiency, and a lack of concern for the people. He has said that the administration has been a disgrace to the office of the President, and he has said that he has been forced to take action to protect the country.

NEW SENATORS WILL TAKE OATH

The new senators will take the oath of office on Monday. They will be sworn in by the Chief Justice of the United States. The new senators are expected to bring with them a wealth of experience and a strong commitment to the public good. They will be expected to work closely with the President and the other members of the administration to address the challenges facing the country.
