WINTER WEATHER IN WEISER

Residents of the larger Weiser and Shoshone valleys have always contended that the winters here are much milder than in Kansas, Missouri and other states to the north. It is hard to make people believe that the snow of the plain almost establishes a branch office of the weather bureau at Weiser—and the office report for the last month of the winter here is a good proof of the fact.

Washington's winter for the month of March is a good proof of the fact. The weather bureau report for the month shows that it was warmer than the average winter in March of the last year. The report shows that the average winter in March of the last year was 27.7 degrees below zero, and the average winter in March of this year was 27.7 degrees above zero.

$300,000 BLAZE AT BURSE

THE BURSE AND STOCK EXCHANGE BUILDING in Boise, Idaho, was destroyed by a fire which broke out on Tuesday night, April 2, and which burned for several hours. The fire was caused by a short circuit in the wiring of the building. The fire destroyed the building and the contents, which were valued at approximately $300,000. The cause of the fire is being investigated by the fire department.
