TO SETTLE THE PIE QUESTION

RAMSTEDT SURE-TO-LAND

Washington, April 1.—The House of Representatives today passed a bill to settle the pie question, which has been a long-standing issue in the country. The bill, known as the Pie Question Act, was passed by a vote of 215 to 198.

The bill is designed to resolve the long-standing dispute over the ownership of the pie. The dispute has been ongoing since the 18th century, and has caused a great deal of confusion and controversy. The bill is expected to be signed into law by the President in the near future.

The bill is a landmark piece of legislation, and it is expected to have a significant impact on the country. It is a testament to the power of the House of Representatives, and it is a sign of the progress that has been made in the country.

The bill is a true classic, and it is well worth seeing. It is a play that will be enjoyed by audiences of all ages. The humor is clever and sophisticated, and the story is both entertaining and thought-provoking.
