DEMOCRATS ASSAIL REPUBLICAN LEADERS

Senator Robinson Goes After Lodge, Pepper and Longworth—Crossfire Brought On In House Between Members Of Two Parties

WASHINGTON—Democrats in the house and senate Friday lost an attack on Republican leadership in congress. They directed a verbal bombardment at Senator Lodge and Pepper, Speaker Gillett and Representative Longworth and carried charges on the world court case, brought into play the senatorial investigations and motives behind them and evoked a crossfire from the Republican ranks.

In the senate, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the minority leader, accused Senator Lodge, Republican party leader, of pigeonholing the world court proposal in the foreign relations committee. He also took exception to the speech of Representative Pepper, Republican, Pennsylvania, to ask for his speech delivered Thursday at the Maine Republican state convention and assailed Representative Longworth, Republican leader in the house, for remarks he made before a group of Republican women in Philadelphia Thursday night.

In a brief reply, Senator Lodge asserted that he had made no effort to block action on the world court proposal.

Later, Senator Lodge took exception to a charge by Senator Robinson that Chairman Marvin of the tariff commission had been a special and highly confidential lobbyist for the wool interests. The commission chairman formerly was secretary of the Home Market club of Boston, Senator Lodge declared, and in that capacity had come to Washington to represent the companies in that club in the interest of high-tariff protection which he had a perfect right to do.

After considerable debate a resolution to provide that members of the tariff commission should not sit in cases in which they were financially interested, was laid aside with a vote from Senator Robinson that the senate had disposed of the pending immigration bill.

In the house, Representative Stevenson, Democrat, South Carolina, read the attack on the Republicans and accepted Mr. Longworth's suggestion that the Democrats in his year's campaign, "It is to represent the Democrats going after a dead body as the Republican party."

"I was glad to have an admission from the high titular leader of this house," he declared, "that the Republican party is dead and begins to smell."

Representative Connally, Democrat, Texas, then assailed both the Pepper and Longworth speeches as well as the recent speech in Boston by Speaker Gillett in connection with his references to congressional investigations.

"I want to say you do not need to blame the Democrats," he asserted. "A Republican senate appointed these committees. A Republican house appointed these committees and you heard no objection."

"If we find corruption what do you want us to do—do they want to walk around it, to dodge it—do they put Denby out of the cabinet? If anyone is to blame it's our president, Calvin Coolidge. Congress didn't put out Daugherty. The president of the United States, who said he would sacrifice no innocent man, put him out. Everyone knows he sacrificed Daugherty. Would the president move his hands to be influenced by scandal? Would they were rightly removed from the cabinet? Or the president had not the moral stamina to retain them?"

Representative Tincher of Kansas of the Republican counter offensive.

"This country is tired of seeing no indulgence in pure, simple politics," he told the Democrats, "while the Republican party is making a

COUNTRY SCHOOL MEET TO BE BIGGEST EVER

Annual Affairs is Scheduled for Institute Next Saturday.

Without question, this year's annual Washington country school meet, which will be held at the Inermountain Institute next Saturday will be the biggest ever. Evidence of this is seen in the fact that more contestants have entered the different contests than ever before and those in charge of the affair say there is a keen interest in the event all over the country.

The meet includes an essay contest; spelling contest and track and field events. Winners of the different events are given first, second and third ribbons and the school that wins the highest number of points in the meet will be presented with a handsome silver cup.

The affair is sponsored by the Institute and this is the fourth annual meet. Besides the prizes given, all the contestants are guests at the school for the day and a big dinner is given them.

There is no admission charge to the meet and the authorities at the school invite all interested to be out at the school's grounds and take it in.

Anderson-Gwilliam.

A very pretty wedding ceremony was performed here yesterday—at 1:30 o'clock when Mr. Ross W. Anderson of this city and Miss Josephine Gwilliam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gwilliam of La Grande, Oregon, were united in marriage. Bishop F. S. Gwilliam of the local L. D. S. church and brother of the bride tied the nuptial knot and it was in the presence of only immediate relatives of the young couple at the groom's home.

The bride is a young woman of unusual charm and for some time has been organist at the Star Theatre. The groom is employed by the Continental Oil company here and is the type of young man for whom the future holds the brightest of prospects. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left by auto for La Grande where they will visit with relatives for a few days and then they will return to their home here.

Their many friends will join with the Signal in wishing them a most successful and happy married life.

Mann's Creek Defeats Cove.

Mann's Creek defeated the Cove team by a score of 11 to 7 in the first game of the season on the Cove's diamond.

Mrs. Stump arrived from Ventura, California Friday afternoon, called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Tinsley in Cambridge.

Miss Amelia Plogoff spent the day at the home of her sister, Mrs. V. P. Brookover, Saturday.

Effort to prosecute those who are guilty.

"You do not stop at ordinary methods, but at government expense send across the continent for whom? For a man who has a right to the reputation that he enjoys of being the most confirmed liar in the world. I have reference to the man who is not only a liar, but has proven to be a blackmailer; who claims to have been a great outlaw and has capitalized his own infamy by selling it to the public press."

When Mrs. Stump returned to her home she was met by her husband who was sent for to furnish political data to try to beat somebody for political office.

Mr. Fincher declared that "one afternoon Calvin Coolidge is said to be a moral coward because Harry Daugherty is still in the cabinet; the next morning they say Coolidge is a moral coward because Daugherty is out of the cabinet."

Surprise Swanson

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Swanson were the recipients of a very pleasant surprise at their ranch home near here last Thursday evening. A number of the neighbors called and a general good time was had. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Andrus, Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith and son, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Smith and family, Mr. Ross of Estorville, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Foster Lyle, Mrs. Daisy Durbin and T. J. Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson expect to leave soon for Spokane, Wash. where they will visit with relatives for a time and then they will look up a new location. Both are splendid people and their many friends will be sorry to hear of their leaving.

Cooperate Against T. B.

"Within a month after systematic tuberculin testing of the breeding cattle herds was undertaken in Butte County, Neb., every owner showed his interest in the work by having his stock tested. A recent report of the United States Department of Agriculture from Dodge Bay, Nebraska, in charge in Nebraska, cooperating with representatives of the State Department of Agriculture, says that there were 1,851 herds containing more than 29,000 head of cattle in the state.

SENATE WOULD REVISE TAXES

FINANCE COMMITTEE IN FACE OF PRESIDENT'S OPPOSITION RESTORES TOLLS ON TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH MES-SAGES

WASHINGTON—Facing a declaration by President Coolidge against any new tax levies, the senate finance committee Friday night, restored to the revenue bill the taxes on telegraph and telephone messages as a step toward meeting an apparent deficit of $75,000,000 in the revenue under the bill as passed by the house.

WASHINGTON—While the senate finance committee, warned of a $75,000,000 deficit as a result of revenue bill, turned to means for raising new revenue, President Coolidge Friday announced a general policy of opposition to any new taxes.

Mr. Coolidge, while not expressing any specific attitude on the new taxes voted Thursday night by the committee on radio and mail messages, indicated he would approve new levies only if designed to shift the tax burden from a class or interest now heavily taxed to a class or interest which might without injury bear additional taxation.

Before taking up the remaining excise and miscellaneous tax rates Chairman Smoot called attention of the committee to estimates which, he said, showed the bill as now framed would fall by about $75,000,000 to raise sufficient revenue in the next fiscal year.

"This did not take into account $3,500,000,000 in special appropriations introduced in congress and which about $600,000,000 already has been approved by one house or the other. In this group he included the soldier bonus bill.

Republicans and Democrats of the committee held separate meetings Friday afternoon at which was considered the problem of where to place the amount of reductions to excise taxes already approved by the house, and the necessary increases in taxes. No definite conclusions were announced.

"At an earlier session, however, the committee, upon request of Senators McCormick and McKinley, Republicans, Illinois, and Representative Madden, Republican, Illinois, did agree to the house action in cutting in half the tax on produce exchange sales amounting to two cents for each $100. The full tax previously had been restored to the bill by the committee. The cut involves a reduction in revenue estimated at $4,000,000.

Obtaining the consent of the senate to adjourn until Monday, Chairman Smoot outlined a program for a full day of meetings Saturday, at which he plans to conclude consideration of the bill. If completed Saturday, Mr. Smoot assured President Coolidge Friday, a report of the measure would be made to the senate Monday.

FARMERS MUST HAVE RELIEF

LETTER TO PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS TELLS OF NUMBER WHO ARE FORCED TO LEAVE FARMS

WASHINGTON—Continuation of present unfavorable conditions on American farms will result in a general depopulation of American farmers, representatives of several farm organizations declared Saturday in a letter addressed to the president, the congress and the people of the United States.

Farmers were forced from their homes during 1923 at the rate of 100,000 per month, the letter said, and the process still is under way in all its cruelty.

"The McNary-Haugen bill was introduced as an emergency relief measure. The letter was signed by T. C. Atkeson, Washington, representative of the National Grange; Gray Silver, for the American Farm Bureau federation; James Riggs, National Livestock Producers' association, and George J. Wet, general manager of the American Wheat Growers' association.

"Country conditions cannot be told in words," the letter said. "The hundreds of broken banks are real, but the suffering which followed them is hidden in the haze of distance. Unceasing toll of millions of people, futile attempt to protect family and property, is lost without recognition.

"The cause is evident. A disorderly world emerging from war and handicapped by man-made barriers across channels of international trade proves unable to absorb the surplus production of our farms and our industries at prices commensurate with American standards. An elaborate structure of economic protection is provided for industry and labor but does not reach the farmer.

"The remedy is as obvious as the cause. It rests in the application of effective protection to the products of the farm equally with those of other industry—the establishment of domestic markets for farm crops on an American basis, apart from world conditions to conform with like markets already provided for among manufacturers and American labor."

The McNary-Haugen bill, the letter said, had aroused opposition from two powerful groups, one represented by Julius H. Barnes, president of the United States chamber of commerce, an important exporter of grain, and the other consisting of "gold-men-of-figures, who view from afar and profess to see in this measure for favor relief proposals which are uneconomic and fundamentally unsound."

BORAH DENOUNCES VIL PRACTICES OF OLD PARTIES

Idaho's Senior Senator Declares That Acceptance of Large Contributions From Big Business Leads to Corrupt Government

Idaho's Senior Senator Declares That Acceptance of Large Contributions From Big Business Leads to Corrupt Government

WASHINGTON—So long as public men are seeking control of the government across party contributions from those interested in matters of legislation or administration there will be "rotten and corrupt and controlled government," Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, declared in an address before the students' law enforcement convention "In these days," Senator Borah said, "the government deals with all the vast concerns of business, too, railroads, ships, oil, taxes, and it is simply intolerable that public men accept vast contributions from the trusts, increased in these matters."

"These unusual sums are given merely because of the common interest participation in their parties. Both political parties have for years placed themselves in an indefensible position in these matters."

Referring to revelations before the senate committee, Senator Borah said these must not be accepted as an impeachment either of the American form of government or of the capacity of the people to rule. Rather should they be accepted as a "call to duty to preserve the government to purity that inheritance which our forefathers gave into our keeping."

"Through constitutional and lawful means," he added, "but in searching and remorseless fashion, let us make the hour of reckoning a memorable one. The days through which we are passing are the agony, but they may also be made the glory of a truly great and self-governing people."

"War brings waste and extravagance and the corruption of the government is round nevertheless. The government as a government is not corrupt."

Declares Makes Honest There are honest and faithful public servants and loyal and patriotic constituents. There are men and women, thousands and millions of them, just as willing to sacrifice for the honor of their country and just as capable of serving the cause of a clean government as were their forefathers.

"But in the demoralization and quest upon war does not tell the whole story. The country was shocked to learn that a very large sum of money was given to a high official by a party having business with the government. What have we to say about an individual having business or expecting to have business with the government giving a very large sum of money to the political party quite as effectively as is seeking control of the entire machinery of the government?"

"You can buy influence with a political party quite as effectively as you can an individual. In the latter instance, it is still denounced in the former instance it has become an accepted practice."

PURCELL-COOPER

A wedding of more than usual interest to a verifiable host of guests—city and surrounding section was solemnized at Colorado Springs, Colo., at high noon Saturday when Mr. L. I. Purcell of Payette, editor of the Waisher Signal and Payette Independent, and Miss Hazel Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cooper of Esqojam, Ill., were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Clough A. Waterfield, pastor of the First Methodist church of Colorado Springs and only immediate relatives of the bride were in attendance.

Mrs. Purcell, who with her mother was with an invalid brother in Colorado, was formerly a teacher in the Payette, Ill. high school. She is a lady with a most pleasing and charming personality and will bring to her new home in Payette a combination of the rarest womanly accomplishments.

Mr. Purcell is one of the best known and most capable editors in the state of Idaho. He has, throughout his long experience, always been in the front ranks in the fight for the things that are right in this state as well as the others in which he has followed the newspaper business. Besides his accomplishments in this field he is a lecturer of no little note, having completed a most successful chautauqua tour in the East last summer.

Following several days' visit in different Colorado cities and then in Salt Lake City, Mr. and Mrs. Purcell will be at home in Payette to their many friends.

May they both enjoy the fullest measure of success and happiness in their new location, as well as wish, as well as that of their many friends.

Fire Department Makes Record Run

The local fire department made a record run to a blaze at the G. P. Watson residence, 328 West Commercial street, this morning. The hose was connected and laid to the fire even before the fire whistle sounded. This was due to the fact that Chief Johnston and other firemen were near the pump when the fire was first discovered. The blaze, caught on the roof from a spark from the chimney, if it is estimated that about $1000 will repair the damage. The place was insured.

Henry Poulson left Friday afternoon for Salt Lake where he will attend the I. D. S. convention.

Mr. M. H. Cooper of Payette, Oregon, and Mrs. Mary Lewis of Ontario, returned to their homes Saturday following a visit at the local home of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Weiser Saturday.

One hundred cars of sheep have been handed by the Pacific and Idaho Northern for the first three months of the present year, 50 cars of which were shipped out of Wells.

The interesting point is the fact that during the same period, for the first three months of 1923, only 47 cars were shipped and only 78 during the first four months.
