

In announcing, as is our semi-yearly custom, the complete our Spring and Summer offerings of fine clothes for gentlemen it is appropriate that men who are not familiar with this establishment's fixed policy of only reliable clothes should be thoroughly informed of the fact that you cannot buy any cheap or common-place merchandise here, while the patron who knows this to have been true in the past, is informed that standard of merit will be maintained as long as we continue to do business.

At the same time, we are desirous of impressing another on this is an Economy Store in every sense of the word. We do not advertise men's clothes at prices which alone dispense the glowing descriptions accorded garments so priced; we do claim to sell as good a suit at $20 as we do at $35; we do not follow any leader in offering bargains as "bait" but we do give every man, who buys his clothes here the greatest value for his money, comparable with the assistance of expert merchandising, low overhead, experience and small profit. Our representation in Southern Idaho, of the great line was brought about and is continued throughout successive seasons for the single reason that we are convinced of the superior merit of these clothes, we know the satisfactory service they give, we are secure in endorsing them, and urging our patrons to buy them.

The Suits this season are certainly beautiful; it seems as if the limit of human ingenuity had been reached in the art of weaving woolsens. The new high light shades are soft blendings of two or more harmonious colors; the double diagonals are shot with faint shades but a fraction lighter than the fabric; the new imported English Woads, present refined combinations of colors skillfully blended and beautiful to look upon. It is needless to say that we do not offer any save all wool fabrics in any garment at any prices.

Styles that are faultlessly correct in every particular; no others. An innovation this season that has received the stamp of fashion's approval is here awaiting your selection. Priced at $18, $20 and $25 and up to $40, with especially worthy offerings now at
