Mr. Merchant, Blow Your Horn!

Weiser merchants, come blow your horn; If you don't it won't be blown. The people won't flock To buy your stock If you never make it known.

So, Mr. Merchant, come blow your horn; It's the proper business caper, And the very best way To make it pay.

Is to blow it thru this paper.

THE STAR THEATRE TONIGHT ONLY

"TAMING MRS. SHREW"

The first betrothed husband was a man named Adam, who min. of some from the notorious apple incident a few years ago, for which reason he calls it "Adam's Apple's" because we've got it in the neck. This is a picture of a wife who is meant to be and she's meant to be a wife.

"THE VIOLIN-MAKERS OF NUREMBERG"

This is a notable film—an 18-1/2 reel subject done in a dash. It will hold your interest throughout.

"REVENGE IS SWEET"

A pleasure comedy production.

"OBVERSE AND REVERSE"

A novel subject showing that things are not always what they seem.

The First Violin—Vitagraph

Deep and emotional in dramatic value; soulful in response and heart interest. A feature film of unbounded beauty and feeling. The part of the first violin is ably played by Van Dyke Brooke a clever Vitagraph player whose work never fails to please.

His Secretary—Edison

An indolent brother entrusted to pay a bill, gambled away his sister's wages. He then went to her office to confess and was again tempted, finally, however, bringing about a situation in which he secured a position as secretary and she a husband in her employer.

"Near Tragedy" and "Lillie's Lovers"

Two real comedies of the Biograph variety.

An Extra Feature Attraction

FOR MONDAY AND TUESDAY

The McMinn Trio. A feature musical act direct from Fisher Vaudeville circuit, with little Frank McMinn, greatest boy violinist in the west. This act together with the above excellent bill of photo-plays makes one of the finest programs ever put on at the Elk; and one cannot afford to miss. Admission 15c, but worth a lot.

PERSONAL

Miss Jessie Ashby of Ontario spent Sunday with her uncle, G. W. Porter.
Mr. W. Hamilton returned today from a business trip to New Meadows.
Miss Ora Anderson returned Sunday from a week's visit with relatives at Nyssa.
Miss Olive Locay is assisting during the week at the Water Trading company this week.

ALONING

BEAUTY AND GLASS WITH ALONING

THE BEAUTY of our new stock of Spring and Summer Clothing is the novelty of design in the fabrics. These are superlatively beautiful and attract the eye of the smart dresser. There are exceptionally fine shades in the material, and the cut of the garments is right up to the latest styles of fashion.

THE HUB CLOTHING CO.

In Society

Miss Irene Clark and her family gave a progressive evening at the faculty and friends of the High school. The affair was given at the home of Miss Edna Clark, the four years of college life was recalled in various ways. Two automobiles conveyed the guests to the home of the entertainer, where they took a course in domestic science. The entertainment was novel and thoroughly enjoyed by all. The refreshments were delicious and appropriate to the occasion.

Monday Wedding

A pretty wedding took place at the Methodist church Monday afternoon, when Rev. Clinton and Miss Clara Charles were united in marriage. Nearly a hundred guests witnessed the ceremony. The many friends of the happy couple extended their best wishes and congratulations.

Band Concert

Saturday evening the usual big crowd was down town on business and pleasure combined, and to add to the joyousness of the occasion the instrumental band rendered a number of popular selections on the principal corners in the business district. The band shows rapid advancement in its efficiency and gives promise of becoming an important musical organization.

Walter Devoed's Hunting

In a night of excitement, played on the local diamond Sunday afternoon, the Walter team slipped it over on Huntington in a score of 3 to 2. It was successfully passed on the part of the visitors. Even during a change of umpires and later changing pitchers availed them nothing. The boys played too much for the umpires in every stage of the game.

Features of the Game

The features of the game were the three-bagger and high run avails by The Green and a three-bagger by Walter. In the sixth the runners were sent to pieces and allowed Walter to add six more to the batch, making nine. The next and only run scored by the visitors was in the eighth.

Barabourton Normal Sunday

One of the largest audiences of the city session gathered at the Methodist church Sunday night to listen to the splendid evangelistic sermon of the principal pastor of the High school, delivered by Dr. Andrew of the Congregational church. Special music for the occasion was excellently rendered by the select choir of the various churches of the city. Rev. Lynn of the Presbyterian church read a lesson from the scriptures and Rev. Woster, of the Baptist church, offered prayer. The exercises concluded with a song by the audience, followed by benediction by Rev. Woster of the Brethren church.

Miss Myrtle Edens

Miss Myrtle Edens, who recently graduated from St. Mark's hospital at Lake City, returned to the city Saturday evening to visit for a few days with her sister, Mrs. Chester Jones.

Miss May Keeler

Miss May Keeler returned home today after a few days' visit with relatives in Idaho. Her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Pivian, who has been attending school at that place, accompanied her home.

Miss L. B. Quinn

Miss L. B. Quinn, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Frank, arrived in the city Sunday morning from St. Louis, for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. George A. Pivian, of Sunnyside.

The Institute Ball

The institute ball team defeated the other creek warblers Saturday afternoon in a game on the local diamond. Both teams are pretty evenly matched, as indicated by the score of 11 to 12.

Wm. Nottingham

Wm. Nottingham sits at the head of the bathing station of New York, he has been here for a few days looking over the country. He left Sunday for his home in Syracuse. He has much impressed with the section of the west.

Mrs. Ellen West

Mrs. Ellen West is a devotee of the city Sunday morning from St. Louis, for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. George A. Pivian, of Sunnyside.

James Leg and family

James Leg and family, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Pocatello, Mo., for the past few months, passed through Water Monday en route to their home at New Meadows. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Pivian of this city between times.

While in the West

While in the West had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Olive Mitchell, one of the first white child born in Water. Mitchell and her family are expected to leave for their home in Idaho.
