TO PUT CHECK ON U. S. COURTS

vent Minor Courts From Getting Aside State Decisions

It was established in the case of the murder of General Meagher that the man who confessed to the crime also admitted two other crimes. The man was found guilty of the murder and was sentenced to death. He was executed on the gallows.

The court decided that the minor courts should not be allowed to get around state decisions. The court ruled that the state decisions should be followed and that the minor courts should not be allowed to get around them.
