An Open Letter to the Public

The buying public has a distinct interest whether or not a merchant advertises. It is to your interest, Mrs. Consumer, whether or not your merchant tells you by advertisement of his wares...

The merchant who does not advertise is necessarily content with small sales, therefore must make a large per sale profit. Again, the very fact that your merchant advertises is a guarantee that his goods are moving every day, therefore you are assured of good goods and fresh goods.

Your pocketbook, your satisfaction, your every interest demands that your merchant be a good advertiser.

It is the duty of every merchant to advertise his goods and services to the public. This is the only way to increase sales and reduce costs.

Advertising is not a waste of money. It is an investment that pays for itself. The more you advertise, the more you sell.

The public has the right to know what is being sold and at what price. Advertising provides this information.

Without advertising, a merchant's goods would go unsold. Advertising is the lifeblood of commerce.

Let us all agree to support the merchant who advertises. This is the only way to ensure a thriving economy.

Remember, the merchant who advertises is the merchant who cares for the public. Support him!

The public's interest is the merchant's opportunity. Let us all work together to make the most of it.

Advertising is the key to success in business. It is the bridge between the merchant and the public.

Let us all recognize the value of advertising. Let us all support the merchant who advertises.

The merchant who advertises is the merchant who is serious about his business. Support him!

Advertising is the most effective way to reach the public. It is the most efficient way to increase sales.
