...NES OF THE BIG MINERAL DISTRICT ATTRACTING ATTENTION IN THE EAST.

...r Wordenhoff, one of the ... of the Thunder Mountain ..., arrived in the city Sunday ...m from New York City. Mr. ...hoff went east last fall, and ...n bonding Idaho and Idaho ... properties in the nation's ...

Wordenhoff has made several ...ring his absence, and organ... companies who will develop min... properties of Thunder Mountain ...mmense scale.

...Wordenhoff states that Idaho ...is attracting a great deal of ...est this time, and Thunder ...ain is coming in for its share, ...ands well with investors. He ...ht a number of prominent mine investors of New York City will be in Weiser shortly, en route to Thunder Mountain. Mr. Wordenhoff states that there will be a great rush to Thunder Mountain this summer, that they will be men of means who are going into the camp to invest their money and develop their holdings. The route via Weiser is recognized as the only practicable one to the camp.

Mr. Wordenhoff put in many years of hard labor in the camp, and now, in his declining years, has secured a competency that will keep wolf from the door. He returned to the camp Tuesday morning, and will remain during the summer, looking after the properties in which he is interested.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for some people to dissolve the political bonds which connect them with others, and to assume among the powers of the State of Idaho the separate and equal rights to which the people of the county and state do not now entitle us, a decent respect for the citizens of the northern end of Washington county requires that we should declaim the causes which impel us to the separation from the north end of the county.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men in the northern part of Washington County are created equal to those who by chance reside in the southern end. That we are endowed with certain established rights, that among these are the right to live, to take things easy, and to pursue July was inaugurated among our citizens, deriving their just powers from the game law passed by the last legislature.

Thus while any form of referendum becomes destructive to the division of the county it is the right of our people to adjourn and to nothing for votes for the purpose of instituting a new county, laying its foundations on the two mile limit law, and organizing the powers in such form, as to us shall seem most likely to effect the safety and happiness of those who have not paid their dollar license.

Prudence indeed will dictate that the determination to form a new country should not be changed for light and trivial causes, and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind is more disposed to "stick" than to look smiling.

But when a long train of abuses and usurpations in office, pursuing invariably the same policy of keeping us out of office, it is our right, our duty to strike the south end in the solar plexus. Such has been our patient suffering and such is now the necessity which constrains us to alter the boundry line and inaugurate a new deal. The history of the present county is a history that will warrant the proposed division and all the citizens of the north end have a direct object, the establishment of absolute and amicable relations with the south end.

To prove this, let the facts be submitted to our candid citizens.

They have forbidden to give the middle of the road party a chance to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation by a lack of votes to elect them to office, and when so suspended they have utterly failed to cause them to be appointed to remunerative positions.

They have failed to suggest other laws that might be beneficial to a to a large class of our citizens, implying that we should relinquish the right to run for the legislature.

They have called together political conventions outside of the town of Council, and distant from the depository of the archives of our city council for the sole purpose of compelling us to dilinque our "drinks."

They have advocated the construction of a steel bridge across Snake river, and utterly failed to instruct our representatives to lack on to the tail of that bill an appropriation to build a like structure across the Weiser at this place.

They have fed us on cost oil of only seventy two degrees fire test to open violation of the pure food law.

They have failed to proclaim their approval of a clause that might have been added to the game law, granting an open season, giving the right of our fellow citizens to kill each other.

They have solicited subscriptions from the citizens of Oregon for the construction of the Weiser bridge and charge them twenty five dollars for killing snipes in the Weiser swamps.

They have played "foul" in securing our baseball team to help them celebrate our natal day with the inadequate guarantee that our boys are not to receive more than three broken fingers and one black eye.

They have ignored the principals of justice in their implied opposition to our citizens who pay the dollar license to catch fish, of returning the money if no fish are caught.

They have refused their own horse, to such an extent that the popularity and glory of Council has become partially eclipsed.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for a division of the county in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated refusals to grant assent.

Nor have we been wanting in our attention to our southern brethren. We have warned them from time to time of our purpose to stop their jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the ties which connect us with Washington county, that he was more than half an hour handling the fish. Mr. Lewis states that he was in the contest for the rod and reel offered by Haas Bros. for the largest trout caught, this season.

This almost doubles the weight of any previous one caught, and will probably capture the prize.

We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, that they would consent to the separation. We have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of these demands. We must therefore acquiesce in the necessity of dividing the county and hold them as we hold the rest of the state enemy in war, in peace, brothers.

We, therefore the representatives of the proposed new county, in precinct meeting assembled, appealing to the great "empire" for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name and authority of the people north of the proposed division line, are, and of right ought to be a free and independent county, that all county authority now existing between us and the seat of county authority be dissolved and as a free and independent county we have full power to hunt ground hogs, kill snakes, contract debts, establish peanut stands and to do all acts and things which any other county might by right do.

And we propose to support this declaration with a firm reliance in the rules of so-to-say, we mutually pledge each other that we will not exceed our socialistic proclivities in robbing everything in sight.

JOHN KARRAWS, Chairman.

WEISER'S FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

WILL BE THE GRANDEST EVER HELD IN THE STATE--IMMENSE CROWDS WILL BE IN ATTENDANCE.

The committee having in charge the Fourth of July celebration, met at the office of O. M. Harvey Monday evening. Each committee reported favorable progress, and the opinion was that it would be the greatest celebration ever held in Washington county.

The dance committee have contracted with Al Hopkins for the erection of a pavilion 40x100 feet which will be used for the delivery of the oration by the Hon. James H. Hawley, of Boise, reading of the Declaration of Independence, and musical exercises. It will also be used for dancing in the afternoon and evening. The pavilion will be located in the open space between Ashby's store and McKinney's real estate office.

The parade will form on Main street, at the Opera House, at 9:15 a. m. on the morning of the Fourth, and traverse the following route:

March from the Opera House west on Pernell street to Second street; south on Second to Commercial; east on Commercial to First; north on First to Poff; west on Poff to Second; south on second to Commercial; east on Commercial to the pavilion, where the parade will disband.

Immediately following the parade, will be the balloon ascension, by Prof. Sackett, in his monster balloon, who at the height of more than 2000 feet, will leap from the balloon to the earth, supported only by a small parachute. This will take place on the old base ball ground, on Washington street.

The bicycle race, horse races and baseball game will take place at the old race track, in the eastern part of the city. The minor sports will be held after the above events on Second and Poff streets, in the business portion of the city.

Every merchant is earnestly requested to have a float in the parade representing his business. In the parade will be firemen, plug ugly's, uniformed band, car of state, and secret societies.

The special trains run on the P. & I. N., will bring an immense crowd.

Everybody turn out and make this the grandest celebration ever held in Idaho.

Disposed of His Horses.

M. C. Fuller of Mineral, was in the city Monday, looking after the horse deal by which he transferred the entire band belonging to the firm of Fuller & Tucker to John Nustine, of this city. The price paid for the band was $2400. The horses will arrive in Weiser between the 12th and 15th. They are said to be one of the best bands of horses on the range in this county.

Mr. Fuller will leave shortly for Eagle Valley, Ore., where he will purchase horses and bring them to Idaho and place them on the range near Mineral. Mr. Fuller had about concluded to go to Oregon to locate permanently, but changed his mind and will stay with Idaho. Washington county can ill afford to loose a good citizen like Mike Fuller.

Farewell Reception.

The young friends of Miss Lona Pritchett will give her a farewell reception tomorrow evening. It will be held on the court house grounds, which will be lighted with Chinese lanterns. There will be music, games and luncheon. Mr. W.W. Pritchett and family will leave about the 8th of this month for Portland where they will reside in the future. Miss Lona will attend a business college in that city. About eighty invitations have been issued.

A Monster Trout.

Harry Wulf received from Meadows Monday a monster trout caught in the Little Salmon in this county, by C. C. Lewis, of Meadows. It was 30 inches long and weighed three pounds and one ounce. An affidavit from Mr. Lewis accompanied the fish, in which affiant states that he caught the fish, June 27, 1903, in the Little Salmon river, within the boundaries of Washington county, ...ons, ...ing ...ing ...ing

THE WEISER SIGNAL.

Bill Jenkins' Sayings.

SAGE CREEK, June 23rd, 1902.

"In these times," says Bill Jenkins, "the man who can find somethin' to economize is fortunate," says Bill Jenkins, as he sat on the fence and watched the sun go down. "Economizin' means that they have all makin' money is by not buyin' other people's earnings. They also tried it on the theory of the working man's prosperity, and ont only by the extreme hot weather put a stop to the experiment. They never produce anything but coal and high prices. They do not do much to earn a pile for home consumption. Their prices and our weather drives us to the mountains. They never produced a full potatoe. And the grist. Bro. Editor's daughter of them cents' half a pair of socks to save her from social extinction. Nothing goes on the down. Economizin' is a short term season. Husbands or wives are still in the highest bidder. After all feelin' feelin' so free on either side, they begin to realize that a husband animal has been purchased at a high price. They then proceed to devote their time to the every day duties of life
