

ARTHUR ALLEN

Arthur Allen, a prominent member of the National Labor Relations Board, is expected to be named as the new director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Allen has served on the NLRB since its inception in 1935 and has been instrumental in many of its important decisions. He is a former member of the United Mine Workers and has a long record of public service.

WEDNESDAY

TARIFF BILL

The House today passed a bill to amend the tariff laws, providing for the reduction of duties on certain raw materials. The bill is part of a larger program to stimulate industry and commerce. It is expected to be passed by the Senate in the near future.

WON

MALL MARGIN

The National Retail Merchants' Association today announced that it had won a significant victory in its fight against the proposed retail sales tax. The association's efforts have resulted in the withdrawal of the bill from the Senate floor.

REMARKABLE

The remarkable success of the new tariff bill has been widely noted. It is seen as a major step towards economic recovery. The bill's passage is a testament to the support of the American people for measures that will help them in their daily lives.

CONGRESS WILL

ADJOURN SOON

It is expected that Congress will adjourn in the next few days. The session has been productive, with many important bills passed. The adjournment will mark the end of the current legislative session.

CLAGSTONE WILL

REIN ANTHONY

The Clagstone will be reinforced with new equipment and personnel. This move is part of a broader effort to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the organization. The new additions are expected to be in place by the end of the month.

ADJOURNMENT

The adjournment of Congress is being celebrated by many. It is a time to reflect on the achievements of the session and to look forward to the future. The work done in the past few months has been significant and will have a lasting impact on the country.
