CONVENTION RUNS SMOOTHLY
 The annual convention of the National Education Association, held in Washington, D.C., ran smoothly and successfully. The delegates from all over the country gathered to discuss the state of education and to formulate plans for the future. The convention was well-attended and the discussions were fruitful.

ROW AMONG THE EDUCATORS
 A row broke out among the educators at the convention. The issue was the proposed changes in the curriculum. Some educators felt that the changes were too radical and would harm the quality of education. Others felt that the changes were necessary to keep up with the times. The row was eventually settled, but it was a reminder of the challenges facing the education system.

FORMER MAYOR IN JAIL
 A former mayor of a city in the District of Columbia has been sentenced to jail for a crime. The mayor was found guilty of a serious offense and the court has ordered that he serve his sentence in a local prison. The case has attracted a lot of attention in the community.

LINGENFELTER AFTERMIDNIGHT
 A man named Lingenfelter was arrested at midnight. He was found in a suspicious location and the police had good reason to believe he was involved in a crime. He is now in custody and will be held until further notice.

WOULD YOU LIKE A LARGER SALARY

Have you ever thought that it was your own fault that you did not advance? There is one method whereby you can force "them" to increase the size of your Pay Check.

Agitating, Bulldozing, Leading or Orundling will do it. One method only—proficiency. Because a Master of Your line or trade and "They" must increase your Pay Check.

Mr. Seltsman, Mr. Engineer, whatever Your line may be, You cannot know enough about Your Business.

DO YOU KNOW

Candidly, that when A City Market opens in your midst, its Prospective customers are the very ones who have sworn

Revenge on the "Comer Grocery" because the proprietor of that grocery

Always has the same answer for them: "We are just out of it."

Look us up for what you want for we are a market and keep everything.
