THE BARRIER

By Rex Beach

CHAPTER I. OF THE BARRIER AND THE BARRIERERS.
I had a very good breakfast this morning. The coffee was excellent, the toast was just what I needed, and the butter was rich and creamy. I was sitting at the table, looking out at the garden, when I saw a man walking towards the house. He was dressed in a dark suit and a hat, and he looked like a stranger. I got up and went to the door to see who it was. It was a man I had never seen before. He looked at me for a moment and then he spoke.

WE KNOW WHAT'S BEST IN BUSINESS STATIONERY

Most so-called bonds are "near" bonds by courtesy only.
You can never get on an ordinary bond paper a letterhead as good as you need, as fine as you expedient.
Real bond costs a fraction more than "courtesy" bond.

COUPON BOND

costs one-tenth of a cent per sheet more.
But the added dignity, the increased compelling power, the real obvious difference in the finished letter-head it gives, is worth ten times the extra cost on its cost.
We know what's best in business stationery.
