THE WORLD'S DAILY SIGN

MASTER JIRISH DEMONSTRATION

Protestants Object to Irish Parliament For Fear of Catholic Domination.

The protestants of the city have organized a demonstration against the proposed Irish Parliament. They fear that the new parliament will be dominated by Catholics, leading to the loss of their rights and liberties.

The demonstration is scheduled for Saturday, September 28, at 10 o'clock. It will take place in front of the City Hall. The protesters will carry signs and banners expressing their opposition to the proposed parliament.

The Irish Parliament is a controversial issue in the city. Many people believe that it will be a step towards the establishment of a Catholic state, which would be a threat to the rights of the Protestant minority.

The city government has expressed its support for the proposed parliament. However, the protesters believe that the government is biased in favor of the Catholic majority and is not protecting the interests of the Protestant minority.
