home Nov. 30 from a two week visit in Detroit, Mich. with family and friends. Thanksgiving holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rush were Donna Lynne Garfield and daughter, Anchorage, Alaska, Jody Kirkwood and family, Weiser and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bronson and family. Word was received here recently that Clara Cooper, Baker, former Huntington resident, underwent knee surgery at a Baker hospital and is recovering very well.

Word was received here recently of the death of Fuchita Feindeville, former Huntington resident. She passed away Dec. 4 at Fortland where she had been staying with her daughter, Gail. Funeral service was held at Prineville. Shirley Abbott was able to come home last week from the Ontario hospital where she had undergone treatment for a long-standing illness. She is now making steady improvement. The annual community Christmas tree lighting ceremony was held the evening of Dec. 12. Grade school students helped with the decorating and a Christmas carol sing-along was held at Prineville.

held. After the ceremonies, Santa Claus made his visit and all then enjoyed cocoa and cookies in the Streamliner. The community wish to thank the volunteer fire department for getting the tree and setting it up on Main Street for the season.

The annual Christmas Eve candlelighting service will be held Dec. 24, 6 p.m. at the United Methodist Church. Everyone is welcome to attend this beautiful non-denominational service.

Geraldine Smith was able to come home last month after a four month stay in a Boise hospital and care center. She underwent major back surgery, an extended period of therapy and recuperation and is now making slow but steady improvement.

The Sorority met Dec. 7 at the Streamliner with nine members present. Discussed were plans for the gift baskets and meals to be given to several families in town on Dec. 22. The Christmas party for members and spouses was held Dec. 18 at the VFW Hall and the annual homemade candy sale was held Dec. 18 at the Streamliner. The group son passes for basketball. On Dec. 9, the board held its regular monthly meeting and conducted the following business: Heard a report by music teacher, Allen Caridge that described what is happening in the music department. Decided to haul away the pile of debris that is at the teacher apartments. Heard a report by Supv. Bole telling of the annexation of the Huntington School District into the Malheur Educational Service District. The district is currently being served by the Baker BSD. The change is mandated by a new Oregon law and will take effect July 1, 1994. Discussed TriCo Athletic League alignment, for '94-95.

The annual school Christmas program was presented Dec. 16 in the gym. Santa made a visit with goodies for the children with the help of the volunteer firemen.

The Huntington Locos basketball team traveled to Burnt River Dec. 17 and hosted Powder Valley on Dec. 2. Adopted a child abuse prevention curriculum for grades K-8. Continued an annual review of district policies. Diana Henigan reported on the upcoming sale of stock.

Pete Coffey was able to return to the care center in Ontario recently after a few days of treatment at the hospital.

Dorothy Lofton entered the Ontario Hospital Dec. 7 for observation and treatment. She is expected home

Dear Santa:
Why are you so fat? Have you ever went down a chimney when a fire is in a fireplace? Have your reindeer run you over? Have you met the Grinch that stole Christmas?

From, --Tommy

Dear Santa:
I wish for a bike, bear, watch, shoes, Giggles and Go, purse, and I like dishes to play house. I wish that the animals have food and I wish that people have houses.

From, --Veronica

Dear Santa:
For Christmas I want a real bow and arrow. I also want a tent, a real power tool shop, the movie Free Willy, and the movie Beethoven 2. I also want the movie Jurassic Park.

Your friend, --Duane

Dear Santa:
I want these things for Christmas, like a neat bow and arrow, a regular muting Michelangelo, a Super Nintendo, a Beethoven the 2nd, and Jurassic Park. Also, I want my grandma out of the hospital and I want my dad to get a job so we can move.

Sincerely, --Brian

Dear Santa:
What am I going to get for Christmas? Am I going to get a book for Christmas? Have you ever gotten stuck in a chimney? Have you ever gotten stuck in a doggy door? How come I never hear your reindeer on the roof?

From the best kid in the world: --Cory
