WE HAVE JUST ARRIVED
Portland, Oregon, August 20, 1906.

Dear Friend:
Ourselves and I arrived here last week. I have been very busy during our stay in the city—looking in the city, and then we started out to do some shopping, but we didn't buy a thing!

You can do better at Ashby's cash store in our ONE MILLION CITY of Weiser.

Yours truly,
Mrs. G. M. B.

THE HUMAN BRAIN

The human brain is the most complex and mysterious organ in the body. It is the seat of all our thoughts, feelings, and actions. The brain is made up of billions of nerve cells, each of which is connected to every other cell. This network of nerve cells is what allows us to think, feel, and act. The brain is also the seat of our emotions and is responsible for our moods and feelings. The brain is a very delicate organ and is easily damaged. It is important to take care of the brain and to keep it healthy. This can be done by eating a healthy diet, getting enough sleep, and exercising regularly.
